The images appearing here are the best quality
possible considering the condition and legibility
of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed
beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed
or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche
shall contain the symbol → (meaning "CON-TINUED"), or the symbol ▽ (meaning "END"),
whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et
de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en
conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en
papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant
par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la
dernière page qui comporte une empreinte
d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second
plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires
originaux sont filmés en commençant par la
première page qui comporte une empreinte
d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par
la dernière page qui comporte une telle
empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la
dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le
cas: le symbole → signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ▽ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être
filmés à des taux de réduction différents.
Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être
reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir
de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite,
et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre
d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

This work forms the third of a series of bibliographies which the Bureau of Ethnology is publishing, each relating to one of the more prominent groups of native North American languages. Its predecessors relate to the Eskimo and Siouan stocks, its successor, now nearly ready for the printer, to the Muskhogean; and next in order is to be the Athabaskan or the Algonquian, as circumstances may dictate.

When first prepared for the printer this bibliography did not include the material pertaining to the Cherokee language, it being considered an open question whether that language belonged to the Iroquoian stock. At the request of the Director special attention was given to the subject by a number of the members of the Bureau, and a comparative vocabulary was prepared. The examination of this led the Director to adopt the conclusion that the language does belong to the Iroquoian stock, and its literature has accordingly been incorporated herein.

The aim has been to include in this catalogue everything, printed or in manuscript, relating to the subject—books, pamphlets, articles in magazines, tracts, serials, etc., and such reviews and announcements of publications as seemed worthy of notice.

The dictionary plan has been followed to its extreme limit, the subject and tribal indexes, references to libraries, etc., being included in one alphabetic series. The primary arrangement is alphabetic by authors, translators of works into the native languages being treated as authors. Under each author the arrangement is, first, by printed works, and second, by manuscripts, each group being given chronologically, and in the case of printed books each work is followed through its various editions before the next in chronologic order is taken up.

Anonymous printed works are entered under the name of the author when known and under the first word of the title, not an article or preposition, when not known. Anonymous works printed in Cherokee characters, on the title-pages of which no English appears, are entered under the word Cherokee. A cross-reference is given from the first words of anonymous titles when entered under an author, and from the first words of all titles in the Indian languages whether anonymous or not. Manuscripts are entered under the author when known, under the dialect to which they refer when he is not known.

Each author's name, with his title, etc., is entered in full but once, i. e., in its alphabetic order. Every other mention of him is by surname and initials only, except in those rare cases when two persons of the same surname have also the same initials.

All titular matter, including cross-references thereto, is in a larger type, all collations, descriptions, notes, and index matter in a smaller type.

In detailing contents and in adding notes respecting contents, the spelling of proper names used in the particular work itself has been followed, and so far as possible the language of the respective writers is given. In the index entries of tribal names the compiler has adopted that spelling which seemed to him the best. As a general rule initial caps have been used in titular matter in only two cases: first, for proper names, and second, when the word actually appears on the title-page with an initial cap and with the remainder in small caps or lower-case letters. In giving titles in the German language the capitals in the case of all substantives have been respected.

Each title not seen by the compiler is marked with an asterisk within curves, and usually its source is given.

There are in the present catalogue 949 titular entries, of which 795 relate to printed books and articles and 154 to manuscripts. Of these, 856 have been seen and described by the compiler—751 of the prints and 105 of the manuscripts, leaving as derived from outside sources 44 printed works and 49 manuscripts. Of those unseen by the writer, titles and descriptions of more than three-fourths of the former and nearly half of the latter have been received from persons who have actually seen the works and described them for him.

In addition to these, there are given 64 full titles of printed covers, second and third volumes, etc., all of which have been seen and described by the compiler; while in the notes mention is made of 134 printed works, 90 of which have been seen and 44 derived from other (mostly printed) sources.

So far as possible, comparison has been made direct with the respective works during the reading of the proof sheets of this bibliography. For this purpose, besides his own books, the writer has had access to the libraries of Congress, the Bureau of Ethnology, the National Museum, the Smithsonian Institution, and Maj. J. W. Powell, and to one or two other private libraries in this city. Dr. George H. Moore has kindly aided in this respect with those in the Lenox Library, and Mr. Wilberforce Eames has compared the titles of books contained in his own library. The result is that of the 856 works described by the compiler de visu, comparison of proof has been made direct with the original sources in the case of 579.

In this latter reading collations and descriptions have been entered into more fully than was at first done, and capital letters treated with more severity.

Since the main catalogue was put in type a number of additional works containing Iroquoian material have come to hand; these have been grouped in an "Addenda;" they are included in the chronologic index but not in the tribal and subject indexes.

The languages most largely represented in these pages are the Mohawk and Cherokee, more material having been published in these two than in all the others combined. Of manuscripts, mention is made of a greater number in Mohawk than in any of the other languages. While the whole Bible has not been printed in Iroquois, the greater portion of it has been printed in both the Cherokee and the Mohawk.

Of grammars, we have printed in Cherokee that of Gabelentz and the unfinished one by Pickering; in Mohawk, Cuoq's "Etudes philologiques" and his "Jugement erroné," and in manuscript the rather extensive treatise by Marcoux; in Huron, that by Chaumonot in print, and a number of manuscripts by various reverend fathers. In most of the remaining languages also, mention is made of more or less extensive grammatic treatises, either in print or in manuscript.

In dictionaries, the more important in print are those of the Huron by Sagard, the Mohawk by Bruyas and by Cuoq, and the Onondaga edited by Dr. Shea. In the Seneca mention is made of one manuscript dictionary, and in the Tuscarora of two. One of the latter, that by Mr. Hewitt, will, when finished, be by far the most extensive we now have knowledge of in any of the Iroquoian languages.

Of Cherokee texts in Roman characters, but two will be found mentioned herein, both of them spelling books; the one by Buttrick and Brown, printed in 1819, the other by Wofford, printed in 1824—both issued before the invention of the Cherokee syllabary.

To the Iroquoian perhaps belongs the honor of being the first of our American families of languages to be placed upon record. At any rate it is the first of which we have any positive knowledge, the vocabularies appearing in the account of Cartier's second voyage to America, published at Paris in 1545, antedating all other publications touching this subject except the pseudo-Mexican doctrine christiane of 1528 and 1539. It is probable, indeed, that printed record of some of Cartier's linguistics was made earlier than 1545. The second voyage, in the account of which the vocabularies mentioned above appeared, was made in 1535, and the first voyage in 1534. No copy of the first edition of the account of the first voyage is known to exist; and although we can not fix the date of its publication, it is fair to assume that it appeared previous to the account of the second voyage. It is also fair to assume that it contained a vocabulary of the people of New France, as the first translation of it, appearing in Ramusio's Navigations and Voyages in 1556, does contain such a vocabulary.

The largest collection of Iroquoian texts I have seen is that in the Library of Congress; the best private collections, those belonging to Maj. J. W. Powell and myself.

In the collection of this material I have placed myself under obligations to many persons, whose kind offices I have endeavored to acknowledge throughout the work. And it gives me pleasure to make record and acknowledgment of my indebtedness to my assistant, Mr. P. C. Warman, for his painstaking care and his intelligent and hearty co-operation.

of the Gospel in Foreign | Parts, to the Mohawk Indians. |

[New York: W. Weyman and Hugh Gaine.] Printed in the Year, M,DCC,LXIX [1769].

2 p. ll. pp. 3-204, 8°.

"In 1762, with a prospect for continued peace, Sir William Johnson turned his attention more directly to the improvement of the Six Nations. He was earnest in helping all efforts for their conversion and education, and his position and long experience gave him practical insight into measures affecting their welfare. Most of the Mohawks, and some of the Oneidas and Tuscaroras, could now read, and he often furnished them suitable books. As knowledge spread among them, the need of a new edition of the Indian prayer-book attracted his attention, and he undertook its publication at his own expense, securing the Rev. Dr. Barclay to superintend the work. With a copy of the old edition he sent translations of the singing psalms, the communion office, that of baptism, and some prayers, which he desired added. When completed the book was an octavo of 204 pages.

"But it was not printed at once, and the causes of the delay were both interesting and curious. Mr. William Weyman, of New York, commenced the work in 1763, and soon encountered difficulties of which he has left us full accounts. He had a good font of type for printing English, but was soon 'out of sorts' in this new language. Let him tell his own story: 'We are put to prodigious difficulty to print such language (in form) in North America, where we have not the command of a letter maker's foundling-house to suit ourselves in ye particular sorts required, such as g's, k's, y's, etc., etc., when, had it been in ye English tongue, we could make much greater drapatch—but at present 'tis absolutely impossible—I having been obliged to borrow sundry letters from my brother printers, even to complete this present half sheet.'

"Rev. Dr. Barclay died in 1764, and his long sickness and death hindered, and for a time actually stopped, the work on the new edition, as there was then no one in the city of New York who could revise or correct it but him. He found that the copy sent was very erroneous, and spent much time in correcting it; while, at the same time, it was so long since he had used the Mohawk language, that he was distrustful of his own ability. During his illness he suggested that Mr. Daniel Claus, afterward Indian agent in Canada, was better able to do it than himself, but he was then away. Mr. Weyman, therefore, sent the copy back to be transcribed clearly, under Sir William's own eye, agreeing to 'follow copy' when it was returned.

"Two years later, Mr. Weyman wrote that 'the Indian Common Prayer-Book still lies dead.' He suggested that Rev. Mr. Ogilvie, then of Trinity Church, New York, and late missionary to the Mohawks, might undertake its correction, if Johnson doubted his 'sticking close to a legible copy.' His own death, in 1708, caused further delay, and Hugh Gaine finished the work early in 1709. The little volume of 204 pages had been only six years in course of publication. On the title-page it is said to have been prepared under direction of Rev. Messrs. Andrews, Barclay, and Ogilvie, formerly missionaries to the Mohawks." —Beauchamp.

"Why this, the first book in the language of the Five Nations, was printed at Boston instead of New York—or by whom the translation was made—Mather does not inform us. It may, with much probability, be conjectured that the copy was furnished by the Rev. Thorowgood Moor, who was sent out by the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel, in 1704, to labor for the conversion of the Mohawks. He remained nearly a year at Albany, and visited the Mohawks at their 'Castle,' but could not obtain their consent to his establishment of a mission among them. Before November, 1705, he returned to New York, and shortly afterwards went to Burlington, N. J., to supply the place of the Rev. John Talbot (another missionary of the Society). Here Mr. Moor gave offence by refusing to admit the Lieutenant-Governor (Ingoldsby) to the Lord's supper, and was punished by imprisonment. Having arrived to escape, he fled to Boston and in November, 1707, took passage for England, from Marblehead. The vessel, with all on board, was lost at sea (O'Callaghan's Note, in N. Y. Documents, iv, 1077). Mr. Talbot on his return from England had met Mr. Moor in Boston and tried to induce him to go back to New York, but 'poor Thorowgood said he had rather be taken into France than into the fort at New York.'

"While at Albany, Mr. Moor must have had opportunity to learn something of the Mohawk language from Laurence Claesse, the provincial interpreter, who had been a prisoner among the Iroquois, 'and understood their language sufficiently,' and from the Rev. Bernardus Freeman, minister of the Dutch Reformed Church at Schenectady, who 'had been employed by the Earl of Bellmont in the year 1700, to convert the Indians,' and 'had a good knowledge of the dialect of the Mohawks' (Humphrey's Hist. Account, 299, 302). When the Rev. William Andrews began his mission work among the Five Nations in 1710, Mr. Claesse served as his interpreter; and Mr. Freeman (who meanwhile had removed to Brooklyn) gave the Society copies of the translations he had made of the English liturgy and select portions of Scripture—from which a Mohawk prayer-book was printed at New York (Id., 299, 302). This 'very worthy Calvinist minister' (as Humphreys characterizes him) may have previously given Mr. Moor a copy of—or assisted him to translate—this little manual. Mather would be glad to promote its publication, and not disinclined to receive whatever credit he was entitled to for the work. And as Moor, while in Boston in 1707, was a fugitive from Lord Cornbury's jurisdiction, there was reason enough—the relation of Massachusetts to New York, considered—for omitting to mention the author's name on the title-page or in connection with the work." —Trumbull.

Arch (John). [Third chapter of St. John in the Cherokee language.] (*)

In a biography of Se-quo-yah (George Guess), by George E. Foster, Philadelphia, 1855, the following statement concerning this native Cherokee, whose Indian name was At-see, is made (p. 120): "He spent quite a time near Willstown, near the western limits of the State of Georgia; here he met Se-quo-yah and became interested in his invention [the Cherokee alphabet]. He readily saw its value and determined to put it into practical use. Before this he had assisted one of the missionaries in translating an elementary school book for the Cherokees, which was afterward printed. He continued his good work as preacher, teacher, and interpreter until late in the season of 1821, when he was taken ill of dropsy. Unable to travel, he at once set about translating the third chapter of St. John into the Cherokee language. He then wrote it in the syllabic character of Se-quo-yah. It was received with wonderful avidity, and was copied many hundred times and read by the multitudes whom he had visited in his tour, thus preparing the way for its quick reception among his people. This was the first portion of Scripturo translated into the alphabet of Se-quo-yah, though it was rapidly followed by other portions."

The elementary book referred to is probably the spelling book of Buttrick (D. 8) and Brown (D.).

Notes on the Iroquois language, vol. 1, p. 220.—Onondaga and Tuscarora words, vol. 2, p. 526.—Name of the Senecas, vol. 3, pp. 109-111.—Indian names of places, mostly Iroquois, but some eastern and southern (a large number of synonyms), vol. 3, pp. 257-267.—Some Oneida words used at Green Bay, Wisconsin, vol. 3, pp. 319-320.—Account of Mohawk prayer book of 1769 and its contents, vol. 3, pp. 334-336.—Notes on names of Onondaga Indians and places, with their meaning, vol. 3, pp. 361-364.—Mohawk words from Brusy and Schoolcraft compared, vol. 3, pp. 436-444.—Mohawk words from the prayer book of 1769 compared with Brusy and Schoolcraft, vol. 3, pp. 464-468.—Vol. 4, which is unfinished and unpaged, contains: Onondaga words from Zeisberger and Schoolcraft compared, 7 pp.; Lord's prayer in six dialects of the Iroquois (hecks the Cayuga; Onondaga and Tuscarora versions furnished by Albert Cusick), 4 pp.; New York Indian names of places, with meanings (about one-half are Iroquois), 36 pp.

William Martin Beauchamp was born in Coldenham, Orange Co., N. Y., March 25, 1830. The following spring his father removed to Skaneateles, Onondaga Co., N. Y. Circumstances were favorable for his seeing a good deal of the Onondaga Indians, and their reservation was sometimes visited, all tending to create a strong interest in them. In 1862 he was made deacon by Bishop DeLancey and ordained priest the following year. The degree of S. T. D. was conferred on him at Hobart College in 1886, and he has been for years an examining chaplain in the diocese of central New York. He became rector of Grace Church, Baldwinsville, N. Y., in 1865, and still holds that office. In 1876 he resolved to make a permanent record of the Indian relics brought to him for examination, and this resulted in the collection of antiquities, described above.

pp. i-iii; contents, double columns English and Mohawk, p. 1; text, alternate pages English (on verses) and Mohawk (on rectos), pp. 2-505; observations concerning the reading and pronunciation of the Mohawk language, verso p. 505;
19 plates; 12<sup>o</sup>. St. Mark occupies pp. 176-341
and is dated August, 1771.

The following is an extract from the preface:
"In the course of the late American war; most of the Indian Prayer Books were destroyed: A very few copies only were preserved; and the Mohawks, apprehensive that the book might be wholly lost in a little time, and desirous also of a new supply, earnestly requested General Haldimand, Governor of Canada, that he would order it to be reprinted. In compliance with their request, the Indian Prayer Book was printed at Quebec in 1780. As the number then printed was small, and some of the copies were unfortunately lost, another impression became necessary.

"The present Edition will be found, on examination, to be superior in many respects to any of the former impressions. The pointing, accentuation and spelling are more correct.
Other editions were printed in the Mohawk
language only; in this, the English is also printed on the opposite page. Hereby the Indians will insensibly be made acquainted with the English language; and such White People in their vicinity as chuse to learn Mohawk, will
hence derive much assistance.

Book—Continued.

"But besides this addition, the Gospel of St.
Mark is here inserted, with a translation of it
into the Mohawk language by Captain Joseph Brant, a Mohawk by birth, and a man of good abilities, who was educated at one of the American Colleges. This is the first of the Gospels
which has appeared hitherto in that language. *

* * * It will probably be the more acceptable
to the Indians for being translated by a person who is of their own nation and kindred. A version of some other parts of the New Testament may be soon expected from Captain Brant;
and he deserves great commendation for thus employing his time and talents to promote the honour of God, and spiritual welfare of his brethren. * * *

"Before I conclude, it may be proper to observe—that this edition is indebted for several
of the advantages which it has above others,
to an Officer, who was many years employed in the Indian department in North America [Danle Clans]. He took the trouble of superintending the impression, critically revising
the whole, and correcting the sheets as they came from the press. His accurate knowledge of the Mohawk language, qualified him for the undertaking; and it is no more than justice to say, that this is only one out of many instances
of this gentleman's unrelenting attention to the welfare of the Indians, who love and respect him as their particular friend."

The following is extracted from the preface
to the 1842 edition of the Book of Common Prayer:

"Another [edition] was printed in 1787, in London, at the expense of the British Government, to which was added for the first time, a translation of the Gospel of St. Mark, concerning which the following particulars may not be uninteresting: 'During the winter of 1771,' says the Rev. Dr. Stuart, then missionary to the six nations, in a letter to a friend, 'I first became acquainted with Captain Brant; he lived at the Mohawk Village, Canajoharie, about 30 miles distant from Fort Hunter, where I resided. On my first visit to the Village where he lived, I found him comfortably settled in a good house, with every thing necessary for the use of his family, which consisted of two children, a son and daughter, with a wife in the last stage of a consumption. His wife died soon after, on which he came to Fort Hunter, and
resided with me a considerable time in order to assist me in adding some additional translations
to the new Indian Prayer Book; when we had finished the Gospel of St. Mark, part of the Acts of the Apostles, and a short history of the Bible, with a concise explanation of the Church
Catechism, I had orders from the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts, to attend to the printing of the whole at New York, at their expense.'

"The American troubles prevented this,
but I brought the Manuscripts which I had prepared for the press into Canada in the year 1781,

and delivered them into the hands of Col. Daniel Clause, the deputy Superintendent for Indian affairs. This gentleman carried them afterwards to England, and they were printed in a new edition of the Mohawk Prayer Book, with a preface by the late Bishop of Nova Scotia,—that is the Gospel of St. Mark but very little besides."

In American Hist. Record, vol. 2, pp. 354-350, Philadelphia, 1873, 4°.

Joseph Brant (Thayendanegea), a Mohawk chief, born in Ohio about 1742, died on his estate at the head of Lake Ontario, Canada, November 24, 1807. Having taken a part in the campaign of Lake George in 1755 and in various subsequent conflicts, he officiated, after Sir William Johnson's death, as secretary of Col. Guy Johnson, superintendent general of the Indians; and when the American Revolution began he was instrumental in exciting the Indians against the colonies. He took part in the massacre of Cherry Valley and in other sanguinary affairs. He had been sent about 1760 to Dr. Wheeler's Indian school in Connecticut, and in 1775-'76 he visited England. He was received with great distinction on a second visit to that country in 1780, and was afterward attached to the military service of Sir Guy Carleton in Canada.

During his stay in England he collected funds for a church and published the Book of Common Prayer and the Gospel of Mark in Mohawk and English. One of his sons in 1811

Ludewig erroneously states that Brebeuf's translation was printed at Rouen, 1610. The British Museum catalogue makes the same mistake. Their copy is bound with a Champlain of 1613, which possibly accounts for the error.

"Father John de Breboeuf, whose Huron name was Echon, was born at Bayeux, in Normandy, on the 25th of March, 1593, of a noble family, the source of the ancient house of Arnulph. By far the most eminent of the early mission-aries of Canada, his life is the history and the glory of the Huron mission. He entered the Society of Jesus at Rouen on the 5th of October, 1617, and was ordained five years after. From the outset of his religious life he was emi-nent for his mortification, austerities, zeal, and devotedness. He first arrived in Canada on the 19th of June, 1625, and was employed among the Hurons from 1626 to 1629, from 1634 to 1641, and from 1641 to his death, on the 16th of March, 1649. He was interred at the cemetery of St. Mary's, but his head was carried to Quebec and inclosed in a silver bust sent from France by his family. He was the first Huron scholar, and wrote a catechism in the language of the tribe, published in 1632, and a grammar never published. As superior of the Huron mission, he is the author of two Relations, one of which contains a treatise on the Huron language, re-published in the Transactions of the American Antiquarian Society, and another treatise on the manners and customs of the tribe."—*Shea, Cath. Brown (David). [The New Testament in the Cherokee language.] (*)

In Indian Treaties, pp. 470-482, and in Protection and civilization of the Indians, pp.
17-19, appear "extracts from David Brown's
letter" dated "Williston (Cherokee Nation),
Sept. 2d, 1825," in which occurs the following:
* * * "The slow progress I make in translating the New Testament." * * *. "I have made a hasty translation of the four gospels, which will require close criticism."

In the History of American Missions, p. 148,
is the following: "On the 27th of September, 1825, the translation of the New Testament,
from the original Greek, into the Cherokee language, by a Cherokee [David Brown], in an alphabet invented by another Cherokee [George Guess], was completed. As there were yet no types in existence for printing
that language, Brown's version, entire or in parts, was circulated in manuscript. It was read and copied in all parts of the nation. A translation, made in such circumstances, could not fail to be imperfect; and another was afterwards made and printed."

In this work Brown was probably assisted by his father-in-law, George Lowrey, as on the title-page of the Gospel of Matthew, translated by Worcester and Boudinot, q. v., that work is said to have been compared with the translation of George Lowrey and David Brown.

James Brown was born at Bourne, Hampshire, England, July 2, 1829; was ordained to the priesthood at Paris, France, in 1858, and was
for two years missionary to the Iroquois at Lac
des Deux Montagnes, Canada. While at this mission the composition of the little prayer-
book titled above was begun, and it was finished
while he was stationed at St. Patrick's church, Montreal. Since 1860 Mr. Brown has had no connection with Indian missions and, as he informs me, has done nothing in Indian languages.
He is now [1888] the parish priest at Chelsea, Province of Quebec.

"The present volume * * * was written evidently in the latter part of the seventeenth century,
and most probably on the banks of the Mohawk. It is a closely written manuscript of 116 pages, which has long been preserved in the Mission House at Caug, awaga, or Saint St.
Louis, near Montreal, adding to the interest of the room where Charlevoix and Lafitau wrote."

"The grammatical sketch is rather a series
of notes. The main work, the Radices Aguières, or Mohawk Radical Words, comprises the primitive words of the language, arranged in five conjugations, with derivatives from each
word, and examples in many cases of great importance as explaining the manners, habits,
and ideas of the people. Except in strict alphabetical arrangement, it is a very full Mohawk
dictionary, written in Latin, but with the meaning of the words in French.

The following account of this author is from Dr. Shea's preface to the Radices Verborum:

"Father Jacques Bruyas, of the Society of Jesus, a native of Lyons [born in 1637], came to Canada in 1660, arriving at Quebec on the third of August. From the fourteenth of July, 1667 [sic for 1667], when he set out for the Mohawk, down to his death at the Mohawk mission of Saint St. Louis, subsequent to 1700, he was constantly connected with the missions among the Five Nations; spoke the Mohawk as well as he did French, and was regarded as the master of the language, in which he composed several works, besides the present and other treatises on it. His abilities were admitted by all, not only the writers of his order, but by Hennepin (who seems to have perused this very manuscript), Earl Bellamont, and Cotton Mather. His knowledge of the various dialects of the Iroquois must have been great indeed, for after a short stay among the Mohawks in 1667 he was at Onondaga from September, 1667, to 1671; then among the Mohawks till 1678, except in 1673, when he was in the Seneca tribe. After this he was chiefly at the mission of Sault St. Louis on the St. Lawrence [where he died June 15, 1712]. He was superior of the Iroquois mission for several years, and superior of all the missions in Canada from 1693 to 1700. In the negotiations between the French and Iroquois from 1699 to 1701, he took an active part, and visited New York with a letter announcing the termination of hostilities. His last appearance in New York was in 1700 and '91, at Onondaga."

" The first edition of Cartier's Relations, printed at Paris in 1545, has proved hitherto to be of such extreme rarity as that but a single copy has been known to exist for nearly three hundred years. The editor of the third, printed at Rouen in 1558, announces that he had translated it from a foreign language, which was, doubtless, the Italian of this second edition of Ramusio, a fact which proves that even at a date so early as only fifty years after its publication, the first edition was unknown. The edition: Relation Originale du Voyage ** Jacques Cartier, Paris, Tross, 1807, 8<sup>o</sup>, does not contain the linguistics, nor does the reprint in Pinkerton's Voyages, vol. 12.

There have been a number of articles published upon the vocabularies given by Cartier, each an attempt to relegate them to their proper linguistic stock. Among these is one in the Historical Magazine, first series, vol. 9, presumably by Dr. Shea, in which, quoting from a writer in Journal de l'instruction publique, he says: "On studying more carefully Cartier's vocabulary with Sagard's Huron vocabulary and the Onondaga dictionary recently published by Mr.

Shea, it is easy to prove that the Indians of Stadacon and Hochelaga were Hurons or Iroquois." A list of numerals (1-10) from the above sources and one of the Caughnawaga are given to illustrate the resemblances, as well as a corresponding list in Chippewa, Micmac, Malécite, and Penobscot, to show the want of affinity with the Algonkin dialects.

In an article by Daniel Wilson upon the Huron Iroquois, in the second volume of the Proceedings and Transactions of the Royal Society of Canada, there is given, from Mr. Horatio Hale, a vocabulary of words in the language of Hochelaga and Canada as given by Cartier, and the corresponding words in the language of the Wyandot (or Wendat) Indians, in which many resemblances are shown and the conclusion is reached that they are the same dialect.

The Abbé Cuoc has an article upon the same subject in vol. 70 of the Annales de philosophie chrétienne, pp. 198-204, Paris, 1800, 8<sup>o</sup>.

Chaumonot was the son of a vine-dresser
near Châtillon-sur-Seine, France. Admitted to a Jesuit college at Tournai as a pupil, so zealously did he pursue his studies that he was soon made a tutor. In time he applied for admission to the order. By this time he was completely Italianized; but the perusal of a volume of the Jesuit Relations of Canada caused him to apply to be sent on that mission. He was ordained and sailed from Dieppo for Canada in May, 1639, on the same vessel with Mother Mary of the Incarnation and the Hospital nuns. He was employed on the Huron missions and visited with Brebeuf the Neutral nation on the Niagara. On the overthrow of the Huron nation Father Chaumonot led a band of survivors to Quebec, and their descendants are now at the Mission of Lorette, which he founded. In 1655 he was employed at Onondaga, but soon returned to the Hurons, and died at Quebec, February 21, 1693.—Shea.

Cherokee Advocate. | Volume I. Tahlequah, Cherokee Nation, September 26, 1844. Number 1 [—Volume 9. Wednesday, September 28, 1853. Number 22].

Vols. 1-9, folio. A four-page, twenty-four column newspaper, "published every Saturday morning, both in the English and Cherokee languages, by Wm. P. Ross, editor." The first few numbers, owing to the scarcity of Cherokee type, contain but little matter in those characters. When these were supplied, from four to six columns were given. The paper contains much linguistic material: Origin of the alphabet, Laws of the Cherokee Nation, &c.

It is probable the issue of the date given above, September 28, 1853, was the last of this series, for in it the following notice appears: "Kind Readers: The foreman tells us 'I can't get out a full paper.' The consequence is you receive a half-sheet. The cause, the Foreman says, is for the want of an apprentice; we don't say that is the cause. There is an old adage which says, 'That there are none so blind as he who can see and won't see.'

"We shall be compelled to suspend issue, unless we can get help sufficient, or the Council does something. We have all the hired help the law allows, and we cannot find a boy that wishes to learn to use the 'printer's stick.'"

The form and size of the paper remained the same throughout.

Mr. W. P. Ross having been "appointed in connection with others to proceed to Washington," in December, 1846, Mr. Daniel H. Ross assumed the editorship, W. P. Ross returning to the position May, 1847. D. H. Ross was again editor from February to July, 1848. From November 20, 1848, to April 30, 1849, Mr. James S. Vann was the editor, and again from October 20, 1850, to the end, with Mr. Wm. P. Boudinot at times temporarily in charge. Mr. David Carter edited the sheet from April 30, 1849, to October 22, 1850.

The translators at different times were J. D. Wofford and Joseph B. Bird.

The publication of the Advocate was resumed some time about May, 1870, I judge; the first number of the second series I have seen is dated October 26, 1872, vol. 3, No. 30, with W. P. Boudinot as editor, and "published by the Cherokee Nation." The sheet appears increased in size to 32 columns. Six columns of the third page are printed in Cherokee characters. The next issue I have seen, vol. 4, No. 52, May 9, 1874, John L. Adair, editor, has five columns on the third page and three on the fourth in Cherokee characters.

Another break in the publication occurred, for I find the issue of November 9, 1878, marked vol. 3, No. 31. In this Geo. W. Johnson is named as editor. Nos. 34, 35, and 40 are all I have seen of this volume; in these but five columns each are given in Cherokee characters.

Of vol. 4 I have seen Nos. 34-52, December 3, 1879—April 14, 1880. The editorial chair is now filled by E. C. Boudinot, jr., who devotes the same space, five columns, to the native language. Of vol. 5, April 21, 1880—April 27, 1881, I have seen all but a few numbers. Beginning with the issue of April 13, the whole of the third page is printed in Cherokee characters and a Cherokee heading has been added thereto. Mr. Boudinot still continues as editor. The only change in vol. 6 (of which I have seen Nos. 1-30, May 4, 1881—November 25, 1881) is in the editorship, Mr. D. H. Ross assuming that position in the last-mentioned issue.

Dr. Trumbull, who has a complete file of the Advocate as far as No. 5 of vol. 2 of the third series, tells me that No. 1 of vol. 1 of a new (the third) series is dated March 1, 1876, "Published by the Cherokee Nation," W. P. Boudinot, editor; Wm. E. Ewbanka, translator. In an introductory editorial Mr. Boudinot says that the Advocate, "which after a time was suspended, then revived, and at last one night disappeared altogether in flame and smoke—type, books, office, everything being consumed"—now reappears. The paper has thirty-two columns and in the first volume has in nearly every number five or six columns in Cherokee characters.

Cherokee. [Medicine and hunting prayers and songs, prescriptions, and miscellaneous charms.]

Manuscript, in the Bureau of Ethnology, consisting of a long, narrow account book, paged in pencil 1-212, perhaps half filled. The writing is in Cherokee characters and has been done from time to time during the last twenty years by a native medicine man named Ahyúmlí, or "Swimmer," on the East Cherokee Reservation in North Carolina. The work will be transliterated and translated by Mr. James Mooney, of the Bureau of Ethnology.

Cherokee. The | Cherokee Messenger. | [One line Cherokee characters.] | Vol. I. August, 1844. No. 1[-Vol. I. May, 1846. No. 12]. | [One line Cherokee characters.]

Pp. 1-192, 8<sup>o</sup>. A sixteen-page, two-column paper, issued irregularly, mainly devoted to religious and temperance topics; edited by Rev. Evan Jones and published by H. Upham, Cherokee, Baptist Mission Press. It was printed almost entirely in Cherokee characters, less than four columns of English appearing in the first number and scarcely anything but the titles of articles in the last.

The title given above is the caption of No. 1. It is probable each issue had outside cover with title-page; the only ones I have seen, however, are those for January and November, 1845, the title of the former of which reads as follows: The Cherokee Messenger. | Edited by | E. Jones. | [Three lines Cherokee characters.] | January, 1845. | Cherokee: | Baptist Mission Press. H. Upham, Publisher. | [Three lines Cherokee characters.] | 1845.

Perhaps these twelve numbers are all that were issued of this series. I have seen one later issue: Vol. I, No. 2, Sept., 1858, J. Buttrick Jones, Editor. Baptist Mission, Cherokee Nation, Mark Tyger, Printer. Pp. 1-16, 8<sup>o</sup>.

The contents of this little paper are varied, the first number, for instance, containing: Translation of Genesis into the Cherokee language, parts of chapters 4, 5, 6, 7, 8; translation of Bunyan's Pilgrim's Progress; Psalm I; Peter Parley's Universal History; Cherokee alphabet, characters as arranged by the inventor; brief specimens of Cherokee grammatical forms [pronouns]; Going Snake District Temperance Society. On pp. 15-16 is an article in English with this same heading, as well as an obituary notice of Rev. Jesse Bushyhead.

These articles are continued in the later numbers, Genesis being completed in No. 8 and the gospel of Luke being begun in the same issue. The grammatical articles are continued in Nos. 2, 6, 7, and 9, these four numbers being devoted to verbs.

Cherokee. [One line Cherokee characters; picture of eagle.] | Cherokee Phoenix, | Vol. 1. New Echota, Thursday, February 21, 1823. No. 1.

A four-page, super-royal weekly newspaper, partly in Cherokee, partly in English, Elias Boudinot, editor, Isaac N. Harris, printer.

In No. 48, vol. 1, Feb. 11, 1829, the heading was slightly changed, the eagle being removed and to Cherokee Phoenix being added the words "and Indian Advocate".

Though claiming to be a "weekly," it was issued irregularly, sometimes two weeks and in one case nearly a month intervening between issues.

The last I have seen was the issue of Aug. 11, 1832, Vol. 4, No. 52; but Professor Turner, in Ludewig's Literature of American Languages, says it continued until May 31, 1834, Vol. 5, No. 52, when it was suspended for want of funds and perhaps not resumed.

This is the first publication in the Cherokee characters. For their first use in printing, see note to Worcester (S. A.).

Copies seen: Boston Atheneum; British Museum.

Mr. John F. Wheeler, who was the first to set type in the Cherokee characters, gives an interesting account of the beginning of this paper in the Indian Record, vol. 1, No. 6, from which I extract the following:

"In the year 1827 the Cherokee, having advanced in civilization far ahead of any other Indian tribes in the limits of the United States, resolved in the National Council to establish a newspaper.

"The Cherokee alphabet, invented by George Guess, a half-breed Cherokee, who could not speak English, began to be discussed and read by the full-blood Indians, and, for the purpose of disseminating knowledge among that class, it was determined upon by the Council to have the Guess alphabet cast into type, and, as there were a number of missionaries in the Nation under the direction of the American Board of Missions, whose headquarters were in Boston, that place was chosen as the place where the new alphabet could be formed into type. The Rev. Samuel A. Worcester, a prominent man in the mission, who had a good education, was selected, or rather volunteered, to look after the casting of this new font of type.

"Very soon after the Cherokee Council had determined upon establishing the paper, Isaac N. Harris, a printer, whose father lived in Sequoyah Valley, Tennessee, near the town of Jasper, hearing of the intention of the Cherokees, went into the Nation and engaged to undertake the printing of the paper. Harris, after perfecting arrangements with the Cherokee authorities, left for home, and from thence he came to Huntsville, Ala., where the writer of this narrative lived. * * *

"After Harris stated the conditions under which the work was to be done, we entered into an agreement to go to New Echota, the capital of the Cherokees, and be ready for commencing the paper by the first of January, 1826.

"We arrived at New Echota about the 23d of December, 1827. We found the press, type, etc., had not arrived, they having to be transferred from Augustano, Ga., in wagons, a distance of over 200 miles. We found the Rev. Samuel A. Worcester, a missionary under the American Board, with his family, and Elias Boudinot, the editor of the paper, with his family, at New Echota, both of whom had just removed there, and both intending to engage in the translation of the Scriptures into the Cherokee language, to be printed with the newly invented characters. Mr. Worcester had systematically arranged the characters, which can be better understood as something like the English ba, be, bi, bo, etc., using the Cherokee vowels at the head of each line. Mr. Worcester furnished Mr. Harris and myself with a copy written (for then there was no printing in the Cherokee language) to learn the alphabet. We had nothing to do for three or four weeks but to learn the alphabet, and it was more and more incomprehensible to us than Greek. For myself, I could not distinguish a single word in the talk of the Indians with each other, for it seemed to be a continuance of sounds. While we were waiting for the type and press it was ascertained that no printing paper had been ordered from Boston with the material. A two-horse wagon was procured and Harris started for Knoxville, where was a paper mill, for paper. He was gone about two weeks, when he returned with a sufficient supply of paper for the present wants. At that time, 1828, paper was moulded, each sheet separate. This was the kind of paper on which the first number of the Phoenix was printed.

"The press and type did not arrive until the latter part of January, 1828. While waiting we had devoted a portion of our time to learning the alphabet.

"The house built for the printing-office was of hewed logs, about 30 feet long and 20 wide. The builders had cut out a log on each side 15 or 16 feet long, and about two and a half feet above the floor, in which they had made a sash to fit. This we had raised, because the light was below the eaves. Stands had to be made, a bank, and cases for the Cherokee type. The latter was something entirely new, as no pattern for a case or cases [to accommodate] an alphabet containing 86 characters could be found. After considering the matter over for a few days, I worked upon making cases with boxes corresponding to the systematized alphabet as arranged by Mr. Worcester. Accordingly we had the cases so made, one case being about three by three and one-half feet. This brought all the vowels, six in number, in the lower or nearest boxes, but the letters in the latter part of the alphabet were in the upper boxes and hard to reach. It took over 100 boxes for figures, points, etc., to each case. There were no capitals.

"The Cherokee font was cast on a small pica body, and, as several of the Cherokee characters were taken from the English caps, the small caps of small pica were used. The press, type, etc., arrived about the middle of January. The press, small royal size, was like none I ever saw before or since. It was of cast-iron, with spiral springs to hold up the platen, at that time a new invention.

"Mr. Green, the Secretary of the Mission Board, came out at the same time the material arrived. It was a part of his business to put up the new press. It was a very simply constructed hand press, and any country printer could have put it together. At that day we had to use balls made of deer-skin and stuffed with wool, as it was before the invention of composition rollers.

"The first number of the Cherokee Phoenix (Tsa-la-ge Tsil-hi-sa-ni-hi) was issued about the middle of February, 1828. There were three hands in the office—Harris, myself, and John Candy, a native half-blood who came as an apprentice. He could speak the Cherokee language and was of great help to me in giving words where they were not plainly written.

"Harris had abandoned the learning of the Cherokee alphabet, and the setting up of the Cherokee type fell to my lot. We had no impression [sic] stone, and had to make up each page of the paper on a sled (?) galley, put it on the press, and take proofs on slips of paper, and then correct it on the press, a very fatiguing way of correcting foul proof, which was the case with my first efforts at setting Cherokee type. It was a very foul proof, and a very troublesome and fatiguing job to correct it, as I did not know or understand a word of the language. But after a few weeks I became expert in setting up Cherokee matter, and as every letter or type had a thick body, it amounted up pretty fast. Translation from English into Cherokee was a very slow business; therefore we seldom had more than three columns each week in Cherokee.

"As I said above, the first number of the Cherokee Phoenix was issued and sent out through the mails to subscribers and to the leading papers of the country, as it contained matter in the Cherokee alphabet, printed with characters invented by an Indian who could not speak English, or any other language but his own native Cherokee tongue; besides, the invention was of a very recent date.

"Elias Bondnot, known among the Cherokees as Ka-la-ki-na (Buck, the male of the Deer), an Indian whose father and mother could not speak English, was the editor of the paper."

English title verso of first l. recto blank,
Mohawk title recto second l. verso blank, text
pp. 1-115, verso of p. 115 blank, sm. 4°; entirely in the Mohawk language, except the headings to the prayers, which are in English
and Mohawk. The church catechism, a morning prayer for masters and scholars, evening
prayers, &c. occupy pp. 1-21.

"In the year 1704 the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts sent the Rev. Thoronghgood Moor as missionary to the Mohawks, but his stay was too brief to be productive of any benefit. After his departure
the Rev. Mr. Freeman, minister of the Reformed Dutch Church at Schenectady, administered to those Indians, and translated for them the Morning and Evening Prayers, the whole of the Gospel of St. Matthew, the first three chapters of Genesis, several chapters of Exodus, a few of the Psalms, many portions of the Scriptures relating to the Birth, Passion, Resurrection, and Ascension of our Lord, and several chapters of the 1st Epistle to the Corinthians, particularly the 15th chapter, proving the Resurrection of the Dead. But his work was not printed. In the year 1709
some Mohawk Indians visited England with Col. Schuyler, when applications were made for some missionaries. The Reverend William Andrews was accordingly sent out in the year
1712, by the Society; and the Reverend Mr.
Freeman having given the Propagation Society
a copy of his translations, they were sent to Mr. Andrews for his use, with instructions to print a part in Indian and distribute them
among his flock. Accordingly the Morning
and Evening Prayers, the Litany, the Church Catechism, Family Prayers, and several chapters of the Old and New Testament were printed
in New York about the year 1714."—O'Callaghan.

"After the American Revolution the work of this society [for the propagation of the faith in New England] was continued in the British North American provinces, and one of the later editions of the Mohawk Prayer Book was printed by it in Canada. In New England, under its auspices, Rev. John Eliot translated the Bible and some religious books into an aboriginal language, now otherwise lost. Next to this early work, as far as the English are concerned, may be placed the translation of portions of the Prayer Book into Mohawk, by the Rev. Mr. Freeman, probably between 1700 and 1705.

"The French Jesuits did something at an earlier day, but probably gave more oral than written instruction. Father Chaumonot, however, wrote some works in the Onondaga language, Carhell in Cayuga, and Bruyas in Mohawk. Father Bruyas preached among the Mohawks at intervals from 1687 to 1701, wrote

several books, and left us a grammar and lex-
icon of radical Mohawk words, which are of great value.

"Passing over these, and the preaching of Mr. Dellius, who seems to have written and translated nothing, though understanding Mohawk well, Mr. Freeman's was the first attempt, in the New York colony, to translate anything into the Iroquois tongue. He selected the principal parts of the English Liturgy, as
the Morning and Evening Prayer, the Litany,
and the Creed of St. Athanasius. In regard to the latter, one might wonder what the work
was like, or what ideas such deep metaphysics
awakened among the simple-minded Indians.
He also translated some portions of the Old and New Testament.

* * * * Mr. Freeman promised his manuscripts to the Rev. Thomas Barclay, in 1710, not having published them himself, and they
afterward came into the possession of the society for propagating the Gospel. When a fresh impulse was given to Indian missions,
and the Rev. Mr. Andrews was appointed to minister among the Mohawks, this translation
was sent to him for his use, and he was told to print suitable parts in New York, and distribute copies among his people. The result was,
that, about 1714, this was done; the Morning
and Evening Prayer, Litany, Catechism, Family Prayers, and some parts of the Bible being selected. This book was printed in New York
as directed.

"This first edition is wholly in Mohawk, as
are the two which followed it. The book is a small quarto, and is said to have been translated by Lawrence Claessee, under the direction of William Andrews, missionary. Claessee was a good interpreter, not only commonly attending when the council fire was blazing at Albany, but also frequently visiting the Onondaga Castle and council-fire. He probably revised and added to the original translation. The title
shows a considerable difference in the spelling
and pronunciation of many Mohawk words between that day and this, much like the changes
in our own language."—Beauchamp.

The first printing in Canada was done by William Brown, who established a press in 1763-'64, in Quebec. He associated with him Thomas Gilmore, who died in 1773, and Brown continued the business alone, and at the date of the above publication, 1780, was the only printer in Quebec. The account books of the firm are in the possession of Surgeon-Major Neilson, Quebec, who furnished me the following extract bearing upon the above work:

"1780. Sept. 5. For printing 1,000 copies of a Mohawk Prayer Book, making 14 sheets 8vo, for Government, 95l. 10s."

"Very few of this [1769] edition remained among the Mohawks when they retired to Canada in 1777. Apprehensive that the book might be wholly lost in a little time, and desirous of a new supply, these Indians petitioned General Haldimand, then the Governor of that Province, for a new edition. This request was granted, and one thousand copies were ordered to be printed under the supervision of Colonel Claus, who, the Preface states, read and understood the Mohawk language so as to undertake the Correction of the Book for the Press. But as that gentleman's employ would not permit him to remain at Quebec during the whole printing of the Book, almost one-half of it was corrected at Montreal and sent weekly by half-sheets to Quebec, until he returned to the latter city and finished the remainder of the Book. The difficulties experienced by the Quebec printer in the composition were quite as great as those encountered by Weyman and Gaine with the edition of 1709. He was an entire stranger to the language and obliged to go on with the printing of it letter by letter, which made it a very tedious piece of work; accents were now introduced for the first time to facilitate the pronunciation of the long words, Paulus Sahonwadi, the Mohawk Clerk and Schoolmaster, being present at the correction of every proof sheet to approve of their being properly placed. By these precautions many mistakes of the first edition, which were copied in the second, were avoided.

*** * Colonel Daniel Claus or Claeuse, as the name is sometimes written, was probably a native of the Mohawk Valley, where he acquired, in early life, a knowledge of the Iroquois language, and was in consequence attached as Interpreter to the department of General Johnson. *** He died at Cardiff, Wales, in the latter part of 1787. Colonel Claus's early and long connection with the Indian Department as interpreter, rendered him thoroughly conversant with the Iroquois tongue; his services were therefore highly useful in superintending the publication of a correct translation of the Book of Common Prayer into the Mohawk language."—O'Callaghan.

Jean-André Cuoq was born at Le Puy, department of Haute-Loire, France, June 6, 1821; entered a seminary of the Society of St. Sulpice as a pupil October 20, 1840; was ordained priest December 20, 1845; arrived at Montreal November 21, 1846, and was sent to the mission of the Lake of the Two Mountains (Oka) in 1847 as missionary to the Algonkins, and remained there many years as companion of Mr. Dufresne, who was director of that mission and missionary to the Iroquois.

Mr. Cuoq occupied himself at first only with the study of the Algonkin language, which he speaks and understands more perfectly than the Iroquois; but, Mr. Dufresne having been withdrawn from the mission in 1857, Mr. Cuoq then applied himself to the study of the Iroquois, partly for the purpose of ministering in that language also. About 1864 he was sent to the College of Montreal, where he was charged with a class, remaining there two or three years; then he returned to the Lake of the Two Mountains, where he remained until 1875. In June, 1877, the Iroquois burnt the church and the house of the missionaries. Mr. Cuoq was then attached to the parochial church of Notre Dame at Montreal, remaining there several years. During this time he composed and printed his later books on the native languages. He returned to the Lake about 1883 and is there at the present time (1888).

In addition to the above works, he has composed an equal or greater number in the Nipissing dialect of the Algonkin. His modesty has prevented me from carrying out my desire to give a somewhat extended notice of him and his work.

He formed three Baptist churches and engaged in temperance work still earlier, bequeathing his zeal in this to his descendants. In 1830 he established a temperance society of 100 members, and formed another in 1845 of 50 members. After this he went to the Indian Territory with some of the Tuscaroras, when the General Government gave the Six Nations lands there, and was one of the leading men in the movement. Most of the emigrants died, and, being sick himself, he came back within three years. He was blamed for the deaths of the people, and becoming unpopular among the New York Tuscaroras he went to Canada, where he preached up to the time of his death."—Beauchamp.

"In the United States, Eleazar Williams, while a catechist at Oneida Castle, N. Y., undertook to revise the former Indian Prayer-Book, under the advice of Bishop Hobart, who called for offerings for this proposed work in 1815. Freeman (Rev. Bernardus). [Works in the Mohawk language.] (*)

"The Society, since they could by no means prevail on the Indians to learn English, neither young nor old, laboured to get some good translations made of parts of the Scripture at least, into the Indian language; tho' exceeding improper to convey a due idea of the Christian doctrines: as being willing by all methods of compliance to gain something upon them. The Society were very much assisted in this by Mr. Freeman, a very worthy Calvinist minister. He had been five years minister at Schenectady to a Dutch congregation, and had been employed by the Earl of Belamont in the year 1700 to convert the Indians. He had a good knowledge of the dialect of the Mohocks, which is understood by all the Iroquois who reach nearly 400 miles beyond Albany. The Society applied to him for any proper papers wrote in that language which he might have. He acquainted the Society that he had translated into Indian the Morning and Evening Prayer of our Liturgy, the whole Gospel of St. Matthew, the three first chapters of Genesis, several chapters of Exodus, several Psalms, many portions of the Scripture relating [to] the birth, passion, resurrection, and ascension of our Lord, and several chapters of the 1st Epistle to the Corinthians, particularly the 15th chapter, proving the resurrection of the dead. He very frankly gave the Society a copy of these translations, which were sent to Mr. Andrews for his help, and they were a great help to him. He used frequently to read some of these to the Indians, and they could comprehend well enough by his reading. But the Society were desirous some part of the Scripture might be printed in Indian, and the copies given to the Indians, and they taught at least to read that. Accordingly the Morning and Evening Prayer, the Litany, the Church-Catechism, Family-Prayers, and several chapters of the Old and New Testament were printed at New York; the copies were sent to Mr. Andrews, and he gave them to such of the Indians as knew anything of letters."—Humphreys.

The Cherokee alphabet, or more properly speaking the Cherokee syllabary, was invented about the year 1821 by Se-quo-yah, a half-breed Cherokee, better known by his English name of George Guess. The earliest account of it appears as an extract from a report of the principal committee, in the Missionary Herald, February, 1826, pp. 47-49:

"A form of alphabetical writing, invented by a Cherokee named George Guess, who does not speak English, and was never taught to read English books, is attracting great notice among the people generally. Having become acquainted with the principle of the alphabet, viz., that marks can be made the symbol of sound, this un instructed man conceived the notion that he could express all the syllables in the Cherokee language by separate marks or characters. On collecting all the syllables which, after long study and trial, he could recall to his memory, he found the number to be eighty-two. In order to express these, he took the letters of our alphabet for a part of them, and various modifications of our letters, with some characters of his own invention, for the rest. With these symbols he set about writing letters; and very soon a correspondence was actually maintained between the Cherokees in Wills Valley and their countrymen beyond the Mississippi, 500 miles apart. This was done by individuals who could not speak English, and who had never learned any alphabet except this syllable one, which Guess had invented, taught to others, and introduced into practice. The interest in this matter has been increasing for the last two years, till at length young Cherokees travel a great distance to be instructed in this easy method of writing and reading. In three days they are able to commence letter-writing, and return home to their native villages prepared to teach others. * * * Either Guess himself or some other person has discovered four other syllables, making all the known syllables of the Cherokee language eighty-six. This is a very curious fact; especially when it is considered that the language is very copious on some subjects, a single verb undergoing some thousands of inflections."

This is followed by a statement from Rev. S. A. Worcester, one of the early advocates of and among the first to use the alphabet, as follows:

"It is well worthy of notice that Mr. Guyst [sic], the inventor, is a man past the middle age. He had seen books, and, I have been told, had an English spelling-book in his house; but he could not read a word in any language at all. His alphabet consists of eighty-six characters, each of which represents a syllable, with the exception of one, which has the sound of the English s, and is prefixed to other characters when required. These eighty-six characters are sufficient to write the language at least intelligibly. The alphabet is thought by some of the Cherokees to need improvement; but, as it is, it is read by a very large portion of the people, though I suppose there has been no such thing as a school in which it has been taught, and it is not more than two or three years since it was invented. A few hours of instruction are sufficient for a Cherokee to learn to read his own language intelligibly. He will not, indeed, so soon be able to read fluently; but when he has learned to read and understand fluency will be acquired by practice. The extent of my information will not enable me to form a probable estimate of the number in the nation who can thus read, but I am assured, by those who had the best opportunity of knowing, that there is no part of the nation where the new alphabet is not understood. That it will prevail over every other method of writing the language there is no doubt. If a book were printed in that character there are those in every part of the nation who could read it at once; and many others would only have to obtain a few hours instruction from some friend to enable them to do so. They have but to learn their alphabet, and they can read at once. If, on the other hand, it were printed in the English character, it would be necessary to spend considerable time at school in order to be able to read; which scarcely any but children, and, doubtless for years to come, but a very small part of them, could do. Probably at least twenty, perhaps fifty, times as many would read a book printed with Guyst's characters, as would read one printed with the English alphabet."

In the same article Mr. Worcester gives the sounds represented by these characters.

In the Herald of July, 1827, Mr. Worcester again refers to the alphabet:

"I am not insensible of the advantages which Mr. Pickering's alphabet, in common with that in use at the Sandwich Islands, possesses above the English, by being so much more nearly a perfect alphabet. Nor do I suppose that more than half the time would be required for a Cherokee child to learn to read his own language in that alphabet which is required for an English child to learn his. But in point of simplicity, Guess has still the pre-eminence; and in no language probably can the art of reading be required with nearly the same facility."

In the issue of the Herald for December of the same year, Mr. Worcester contributes five verses of Genesis in the syllabary, and this, so far as I know, is the first printing in these characters.

In February, 1828, the first number of the Cherokee Phoenix, a weekly newspaper, partly in English and partly in Cherokee characters, was published at New Echota. The first book printed in these characters was probably the Cherokee Hymns, compiled by Elias Boudinot and Mr. Worcester, and published at New Echota in 1820—a small volume of 50 pages.

The Herald for May, 1828, gives a somewhat fuller account by Mr. Worcester of the characters, their sounds, and their systematic arrangement; and in the October number of the same year the Lord's prayer, copied from the Cherokee Phoenix, is given, accompanied by an approximate literal translation, for, as the writer remarks, "literal translations, word for word, from English into Cherokee, are beyond the limits of possibility." See Worcester (S. A.).

In the Indian Record, vol. 1, No. 6, John F. Wheeler speaks of the alphabet as follows:

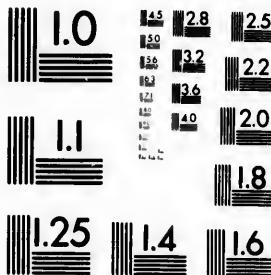

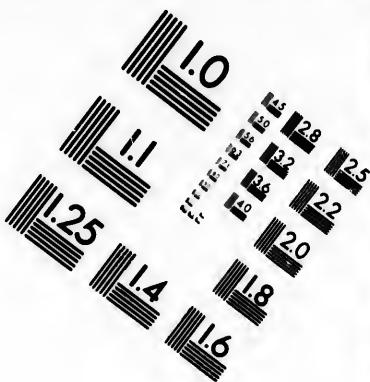

"The Cherokee alphabet is unlike any other alphabet known, as it is syllabic except one letter which answers to the English s, and is placed between the syllables to give a hissing sound. There was no need of schools or school books to learn to read among the full bloods, because as soon as the alphabet was learned the person who learned it could (even the oldest person) easily learn to read. Each syllable was perfect, and there was not a consonant in the whole 85 characters. In the Cherokee language there is not a sound of f, j, p, nor v. The language is guttural, and a person speaking Cherokee can talk all day and not have occasion to close his lips."

Sequoyah was born in the Cherokee Nation in the State of Georgia in 1770. His father was a Dutch peddler named George Gist, his mother a Cherokee. According to Foster, his biographer, "his dreamy meditations on this invention" extended from 1809 to 1821, when he completed his work. He seems to have had no education and to have been unable to read the Roman characters. He died near San Bernardino, Cal., about the year 1812.

"John Gottlieb Ernestus Heckewelder was born at Bedford, England, March 12, 1743. His father was a German exile. * * * In the year 1754 the family came to America, father, mother, and four children. In 1758 he was apprenticed to a cedar-cooper, with whom he remained four years, and then became Frederick Christian Post's companion in his second visit to the Muskingum in the year 1762. He was Zeisberger's assistant in the Susquehanna valley in 1765, and to him for a time was given charge of the Machikilisuaing Mission. During the following nineteen years he was much of the time a fellow laborer with Zeisberger. Heckewelder was the founder of Salem, on the Tuscarawas, and in the chapel there, July 4, 1780, he married Sara Ohneberg, the venerable Adam Grube officiating, probably the first wedding of a white couple within the limits of the present State of Ohio. He was with the Indian church during all the early troubles recorded in this Diary, but finally, owing to the illness of his wife when upon the Cuyahoga, he returned to the church at Bethlehem October 9, 1780. Henceforward he was not immediately connected with our mission, though he made it two or three visits, being employed in other duties, especially as agent of the Society for Propagating the Gospel among the Heathen, and as one of the Peace Commissioners sent to treat with the Indians. In the year 1798, however, he came to Fairfield, on the Thames, to assist in conducting a portion of the church of Goshen, staying there only nine days. In the valley of the Muskingum he labored until 1810, when he went home to the church, being now nearly seventy years old, and having well earned repose. He died January 31, 1823.

"Heckewelder is the best known of all the Moravian missionaries who labored among the American Indians. For this he is much indebted to his books, but also to his social qualities, which made him more a man of the world than were his coadjutors. He had the strength of character to resist the insidious tendencies of the solitary life among savages, the effects of which can be seen in Edwards and Zeisberger."—Bliss, Diary of David Zeisberger, vol. 1, pp. xxv-xxvi.

course of preparation, consisting at present of about 13,000 entries on cards; when completed
it will contain about twice as many, or between 20,000 and 30,000 words. The stems of nouns are traced out and indicated; verb stems are shown and their earlier forms given as far as possible; sentence-words (predicative compounds) and phrase-words (nouns in oblique
cases) are analyzed into their simplest elements.

structed and appear inclosed in brackets. The aim to be derived from engraft tongue and utilized in many difficult analyses and derivations.

— See Smith (E. A.).

Mr. Hewitt was born December 16, 1855, on the Tuscarora Reserve, in the township of Lewiston, Niagara Co., N. Y., and is of Tuscaroran descent. He spoke nothing but English until he was eleven years old, when, having been taught to read and write at home, he went to the neighboring district school, where he picked up from the young Tuscaroras a fair knowledge of that language. He was able to attend school only during the winter months. His father, David B. Hewitt, a practicing eclectic physician, owned a library of medical, historical, and scientific works, which furnished the means of comparing the grammatical elements of the Tuscarora and the classical tongues. When sixteen years old, young Hewitt entered the academic department of the Wilson (N. Y.) Union School, taking the classical course, and attended this school two years. Later he entered the academic department of the Lockport (N. Y.) Union School, resuming a classical course, preparatory to entering college; but over-study and a sunstroke the previous year so affected his health that he was not able to finish the last term of the year.

In the summer of 1880 Mrs. Erminnie A. Smith engaged Mr. Hewitt to assist her in her linguistic work on the various reservations of the Iroquois, and he was so engaged, with the exception of two periods aggregating about a year and a half, until Mrs. Smith's death, in June, 1886. In this work, being obliged to collect vocabularies and make translations, he was made familiar with the various languages of the Iroquoian stock. On the 15th of the July following Mrs. Smith's death, Major J. W. Powell, the Director of the Bureau of Ethnology, engaged Mr. Hewitt to continue the work. He immediately commenced the Tuscarora-English dictionary titled above, which is well under way.

Huron. The Huron language.

In Historical Magazine, first series, vol. 2, pp.
107-109, New York, 1858, sm. 4°.

A short account of the habitat of the Huron Indians, and a brief list (11) of works in their language, including a few manuscripts.

Huron. [French-Huron dictionary.] (*)

Manuscript, pp. 1-276, sm. 12°. Anonymous
and undated, but written in an orthography
which belongs to the middle of the seventeenth century. In boards and covered with chamois streaked yellow, gray, and red, obliquely on the back and left side, vertically on the right side.

An unnumbered leaf precedes the text, on the recto of which we read: "Dictionnaire
français. Séminaire de Québec"; verso blank.

In this dictionary, which, though in a regular handwriting, is read with difficulty, the French words are arranged in alphabetic order on the margin of the manuscript; the Huron words,
with their principal inflections and their syntax, occupy the principal column. The first word of the dictionary is "aage" (Age); the last, p. 110, is "estre vide" (être vide). The other numbered pages, as far as p. 259, contain the Supplément, i. e., words or remarks on various subjects. The last leaves are blank.

Description from Rev. Louis Beaudet, librarian of Laval University, Quebec, where the manuscript is preserved. He thinks it is probably by Chaumonot, q. v.

Huron. [French-Huron dictionary.] (*)

Manuscript, 384 pp.,  $7\frac{1}{2}$  by  $4\frac{1}{2}$  inches, in a very fine handwriting and dated 1683; well arranged and easy to consult. Preserved at Lorette, Canada.

Description furnished by Mr. P. Gagnon, of Quebec, who says the work is traditionally attributed to Father Chaumonot, q. v.

Huron. [Huron-French dictionary.] (*)

Manuscript, 384 pp., besides some unnumbered pages at the end,  $7\frac{1}{2}$  by 8 inches in size. On the back of the binding, old calf, is the title "Logica Moralis." Some pages are torn from the body of the volume.

This work is a little different in its construction from the preceding—the French-Huron dictionary—and is not so easy to consult.

Description from Mr. P. Gagnon, of Quebec, who says that the work is popularly attributed to Father Brebeuf (q. v.), and that both this and the preceding work—the French-Huron dictionary—have been preserved from father to son in a Huron family of Lorette, near Quebec.

Huron. [Gospels, instructions, &c. in the Huron language.] (*)

"There also exists a small volume, comprising extracts from the Gospels, instructions, a treatise on the existence of God, another on religion, and some addresses to deputations, in some cases with a French or Latin version."—Hist. Mag., vol. 2, p. 107.

Huron. Grammatica huronica. (*)

Manuscript presented to the Literary and Historical Society of Quebec and acknowledged in its Transactions, vol. 3, pp. 406-407.

During a visit to the society's library in 1831 I made effort to find this manuscript, but without success.

Huron. [Radices linguae huronicae.] (*)

Manuscript, pp. 1-206, 8°, nearly square, of the end of the 17th century; bound in parchment, and very well written. There are two blank leaves at the commencement and one at the end; one blank leaf between the first and the second conjugations, at p. 38, preceded by four unnumbered pp.; a half-page blank at p. 132; three and three-quarter leaves blank and unnumbered between pages 104 and 105, which separate the second and third conjugations; three pages blank and unnumbered between pp. 173 and 174, which separate the third and fourth conjugations; two pages blank and unnumbered between pp. 179 and 180, which separate the fourth and fifth conjugations; and one blank unnumbered page between pp. 202 and 203, which separates the fifth conjugation from the verbs in t.

Description from Rev. Louis Beaudet, librarian of Laval University, Quebec, where the manuscript is preserved.

Huron. [Radices linguae huronicae.] (*)

Manuscript, pp. 1-263, sm. 12°, of the end of the 17th century. The last page, not numbered, does not form part of the Radices. The manuscript is well written and well bound in parchment. It is divided into five conjugations: the first, pp. 1-40; the second, pp. 46-168; the third, pp. 108-214; the fourth, pp. 214-230; the fifth, pp. 230 to the end. "Peter Jones * * * was born in the woods on a prominent tract of land called Burlington Heights. He spent ten years in wandering about with his own tribe, and grew up under the influence of the heathen nations and habits of his own nation. At the age of sixteen his father, of Welsh descent, and a government surveyor, got him baptized by the Rev. Ralph Leeming, English Episcopal minister, at the Mohawk Church, on the Grand River, near Brantford. * * * About three years after his baptism he was truly converted to God, at a camp meeting held near Ancaster. * * * Having furnished satisfactory evidence to the fathers and brethren of the Wesleyan Church that he was called to the office of a Christian minister, he was solemnly set apart to that work as deacon, by the imposition of hands, at the Kingston Conference, by the Rev. Bishop Headling, in 1830; and as priest at the Toronto Conference in 1833, by the Rev. George Marsden. During the following twenty-three years of his valuable life, he continued to labor among his Indian brethren with encouraging success. * * * At length his never very vigorous constitution began to yield to excessive exposure, colds and fevers. In the spring of 1850 he had so severe a fit of sickness that few who saw him had any expectation of his recovery, but his valuable life was prolonged a few years. * * * He died at his home near Brantford, June 29, 1856."—Osborn.

Itch titles an edition Paris, 1723, 2 vols. 4°, which, says Bartlett in the Brown catalogue, is probably an error. Charlevoix mentions an edition "reprinted badly enough" at Romen, 1724, which, according to Sabine's dictionary, No. 38937, refers probably to the Paris edition of the same date. Assuming, as Sabine says, that the 3-vol. edition of 1703 is the original, vol. I of each of the two 2-vol. editions agrees with it page for page and nearly line for line in the matter following the preface, i. e., from the beginning of the text, p. 1. In vol. 2 the editions run alike page for page throughout the text; the tables at the end agree in the two 2-vol. editions, both of which differ from the second volume of the 3-vol. edition. The type of the two 2-vol. editions is very nearly the same, but differs materially from that used in the same (second) volume of the 3-vol. edition. The head and tail pieces and the initial letters differ materially in all three editions, as do also the engraved plates and maps; and there are minor discrepancies throughout the text of all the editions.

It will be noticed that the position of the figure in the preliminary plate in vol. 1 of each of the two 2-vol. editions is reversed from that in vol. 1 of the 3-vol. edition belonging to the Carter Brown library, and that it does not appear at all in the second volume of either of the 2-vol. editions or in the third volume of the 3-vol. edition. Altogether, the make-up of the 2-vol. editions is inferior, especially in the engraved plates, to that of the 3-vol. edition.

I am indebted to the owners of these editions for kindly sending them to me for inspection, so that I have been fortunate in having them all under the eye at the same time. I took advantage of the opportunity to make a photographic copy of each of the title-pages, as well as of those of some other editions, and have thus been enabled to read the proof of these titles from fac-similes. It has not been thought necessary to call special attention, by the use of brackets, to all the minor errors and differences in spelling and punctuation.

"Antoine Théodore Le Brun, a Prémontré monk, came from Germany to Quebec, where the bishop conferred upon him the priesthood in 1783; he was then sent to the Lake of the Two Mountains to learn the Iroquois, and to be afterward employed either in that mission or at those of St. Regis and Saint St. Louis. But it appears that he took a dislike to this ministry, for during 1787 he returned to his own country."—Oeog.

Le Caron (Père Joseph). [Dictionary of the Huron language.] (*)

"The dictionary of the Huron language was first drafted by Father Joseph Le Caron in 1616. The little Huron whom he took with him when he returned to Quebec aided him greatly to extend it. He also added rules and principles during his second voyage to the Hurons. He next increased it by notes which Father Nicolas sent him, and at last perfected it by that which that holy monk had left when descending to Quebec, and which the French placed in his hands: so that Father George, procurator of the mission in France, presented it to the king with the two preliminary dictionaries of the Algonquin and Montagnais languages in 1625."—Le Clerc.

Lowrey (George) and Brown (D.) [Gospel of Matthew in the Cherokee language.]

In the Cherokee Phoenix, vol. 1, No. 7 (April 3, 1828), was begun the printing of the Gospel of Matthew in Cherokee characters, and in the numbers following, until July 20, 1829, chapters ii-xvii are given. Concerning the translators, Mr. John F. Wheeler, in his Recollections of a life of fifty years among the Cherokees, published in the Indian Record, vol. 1, No. 0, makes the following statement :

"In the first numbers of the Cherokee Phoenix was published a translation of the book of Matthew by Major George Lowrey, afterwards second chief under John Ross, aided by his son-in-law, David Brown, the brother of the celebrated Catharine Brown. As this translation was incorrect in many parts, as appeared on critical examination, Mr. Worcester, who was a good Greek scholar, and Mr. Boudinot, re-

On the title-page of the second edition of the Gospel according to Matthew, translated by Worcester and Boudinot and printed at New Echota in 1832, it is stated that it has been "compared with the translation of George Lowrey and David Brown"; and in the Missionary Herald, 1832, there is mentioned, without the name of the translator, an edition of 1829, 124 pp. It is probable this refers to the translation published in that year by Worcester and Boudinot; whether the Lowrey translation was issued in book form or not I do not know.

Title verso blank 1 l. preface pp. 3-4, text pp. 5-100, 18°. Prayer book, entirely in the Mohawk language.

My own copy of this little work and one in the library of the archbishopric of Quebec are the only copies, as far as I know, in this country. In Charles Nodier's Description raisonnée d'une jolie collection de livres (No. 16), Paris, 1834, is found the following:

"This volume, entirely printed in Iroquois, is preceded by fifteen and followed by three leaves of an excellent writing, which contain a very interesting and valuable notice, in French, of the language, of which the editor regards it as the first typographic monument. The dedication [in manuscript, I take it] of this curious work is addressed to M. le vicomte de Chateaubriand, dated Sault Saint-Louis, Lower Canada, and signed: Jos. Marcoux, ptre mis. My illustrious and beloved colleague, M. de Chateaubriand, has kindly recorded in five autographic lines, on a separate leaf, the valued testimonial of kindness with which he has honored me in making me a gift of this very rare book, perhaps unique in Europe."

Concerning this work the Abbé Cuq, of Montreal, writes me as follows:

"At that time [1816], it is true, Mr. Joseph Marcoux was missionary at St. Regis; in 1810 he exchanged with Mr. Dufresne, who had been at Sault Saint-Louis since 1812. During that time Mr. Roupe was at the Lake of the Two Mountains (1813-1829). The three missionaries concerted for the composition and publication of this little volume, of which there has remained for a long time only a single copy at the Lake [now in the possession of the compiler of this catalogue], and absolutely none either at St. Regis or the Sault."

I was informed by Mr. Marcoux himself that he had sent to M. de Chateaubriand a copy of this Kalatonsera, with some information on the genius of the Iroquois language."

— [Catechism in the Mohawk language.]

Clophou: Tehoristoraragon Joseph Hebert | Wisonko. 1823.

11 pp. 18<sup>o</sup>. A fragment, consisting of pp. 9-11, of the concluding portion of a Roman Catholic catechism in the Mohawk language. The heading on p. 9, "Iontatkentsiohas," means "Confirmation," literally "anointing the forehead." The first sentence, "Toul karihoten iontatkentslohas!" reads in English "What is the meaning of confirmation!"

Wisonko, "At the Plums," is the Iroquois name of the village of St. Philippe, near Caughnawaga, opposite Montreal. These few pages, belonging to me, are all I have seen of this work, nor have I seen any reference to an edition of this date. They contain apparently the same matter, in a modified form, as do pp. 37-38 of the edition of 1844, the w's and g's in the earlier edition being changed to s's and k's in the later.

Concerning this work the Abbé Cuoq writes as follows: "I return the leaves of the Iroquois Catechism. They prove evidently that Mr. Joseph Marcoux, missionary of Sault St. Louis, had his catechism printed in 1823 at St. Philippe, a parish not far from Caughnawaga, where the curé had set up a printing press. Before receiving the three pages that you have sent me, I did not even suspect its existence. I had never heard that the edition of 1842 had been preceded by another. I had always regarded it as the first, and I am very sure that no traces remain in our missions of this precious relic of 1823."

"Onontiroke, in Mohawk literally great, grand, large mountain, was originally applied to Charles Hault de Montagny, successor to Champlain, being a translation of his name. Up to the time of the conquest by England, the term was applied to the French rulers in Canada; since then it has been applied to any which is "Jos. Marcoux ptre") reverse blank 1 l. 7 blank ll. text pp. 1-157 (reverse of last page blank), 5 blank ll. followed by table des matières 3 pp. oblong folio.

The manuscript has been well preserved and is nicely bound. The first page begins with the preface or introduction, entitled Grammaire Iroquoise. The six tribes of Iroquois are briefly referred to and the page closes with the statement that "Cetto grammaire sera ilisée en trois parties, élémens, syntaxo, et idiomismes."

Première partie, Élémens, p. 1. In this are given the number of letters used and their different sounds. Règles de prononciation, p. 2. Five rules are given. On the middle of page 3 begins the chapter Des noms. Then follow three pages on the noun. At the end of p. 5 is the paragraph: Du paradigme k- des noms. Two pages are devoted to the conjugation of this paradigm. Then follow two pages of the conjugations in Paradigm a of the nouns. On p. 10 is the chapter heading Des genres et nombres. Page 11 begins a chapter on Noms de nombre. These are divided into cardinal, ordinal, distributive, and multiplicative. 1st division, Nombres cardinaux—the numerals 1-100,000. Page 14 begins a paragraph entitled Observations, followed by Nombres ordinaires; Nombres distributifs, p. 15; Nombres multiplicatifs, p. 16. The next division is Des adjectifs, observations, followed by the divisions: comparatif et superlatif, p. 17. The eighteenth page begins with Des pronoms. This contains a full table of the personal pronouns. The following page has a table of Pronoms possessifs. Page 21 is devoted to Pronoms indéterminés. Page 22 begins a new chapter, Du verbe. "Le verbe est le mot par excellence de l'Iroquois, puisque dans cette langue tout est verbe, nouns, pronoms, adjectives." All of the pages to 108 are filled with the paradigms of the different conjugations.

Seconde partie, Syntaxe. This is divided into paragraphs headed: Syntaxe d'accord, p. 109; Tourné négatif, p. 110; Tourné interrogatif, p. 110; Tourné impératif, p. 111. The next division is: Syntaxe des pronoms, p. 111, followed by the paragraphs: Que avec les verbes, p. 112; Et, ou, lorsque les verbes, p. 113; Noms d'instrument, de cause, de matière, &c. p. 113; Régime d'un verbe sur un autre verbe, p. 114; Des pronoms en, y, p. 114; Adverbes de lieu, p. 115; Des quantités, p. 115; Des comparaisons, p. 118; Des mesures, p. 118; Table des mesures, monoles, poids, longueur et largeur, p. 119; Liquides, with table, p. 120; Temps, with table, p. 121; Relations de parenté, pp. 121-128.

Troisième partie, Idiomismes. Forty of these are given, each in numbered paragraphs, extending from p. 129 to p. 139. Pp. 140-150 are blank.

A new section, Différences dans les dialectes iroquois entre eux et avec la langue huronne begins on page 151. On p. 153 begins an appendix: Remarques additionnelles et explications, which closes with p. 157. Reverse of p. 157 blank, followed by 5 blank ll. unnumbered; then: Table des matières 3 pp. unnumbered.

Under date of Dec. 20, 1886, the Rev. Mr. Mainville, pastor at St. Regis, writes me: "Several copies were taken of that wonderful work [the Dictionary and Grammar], one for Oka, which was burnt, another for St. Regis, made by the late Rev. Francis Marcoux. Unfortunately, one volume of the dictionary and the grammar having been lent to an Indian agent, they were never returned, under the pretext that they had been lost, which, being next to impossible, it is probable they were destroyed through fanaticism by some other parties. I took a third copy from the original itself three years ago."

I have seen a copy of the grammar, as follows:

— Grammaire iroquoise.

"Jean Claude Mathevet, a Siouan missionary, whose Indian name was Wakwi, was born in the diocese of Vitrors, in France, in 1717. He came to Canada in 1740, and was missionary at Lac des Deux Montagnes from 1746 to 1781, where he learned the Algonkin and Iroquois languages. He has left in the former several manuscript sermons, a catechism (which has been printed, with corrections, several times since 1830), and a history of the old and new testament, which I had printed in 1859-61, and of which, as the edition is entirely exhausted, I am at present preparing a new one. In the Iroquois he has composed sermons, prayers, and a grammatical essay. He died in 1781, aged 64 years." — Cuog.

I have seen Mathevet referred to by the Indian name of "Talorhensere;" perhaps that is his Iroquois and "Wakwi" his Algonkin name.

Manuscript, 70 ll. 4°, in the Convent of the Sisters of the Congregation at Oka, Canada. The following description was furnished me by the late Mrs. Ermirrio A. Smith: In the convent there are a number of manuscript copies of religious books pertaining to the doctrines of the Roman Catholic Church. These are quarto in size and contain seventy leaves, which are written upon both sides. The questions and answers, the prayers, bible stories, articles of faith, deadly sins, &c. are written in French, with the Mohawk translation on the opposite page. These copies were made by the sisters at least one hundred years ago, and some of the penmanship is as fine as steel engraving. Page 1 contains a prayer entitled: Prière avant le catéchisme; p. 2, Prières du matin et du soir, followed by the prayer in French, then Pour le matin, Pour le soir, Pause, Acte de contrition; on the opposite page is the translation of these prayers in Mohawk; p. 4 contains the Confiteor, Pendant la messe, and Offrande de la messe; p. 5 begins with article first of the faith, followed by the Ave Maria, Credo, and the following prayers: à St. Michel, à l'ange gardien, à St. Joseph, pour le clergé, pour le roi, pour les parents, pour les morts; these are followed by the Angelus, Priens, Sub tuum praesidium, Acte de foy, d'espérance, de charité.

The manuscript was obtained from Chief Smoke Johnson by the late Mrs. Ermirrio A. Smith, at Grand River, Canada, September, 1884. It is the work which Mr. Horatio Hale translated and called the Book of Rites, though it does not contain this heading in Indian. Another pencil note on the inside of the cover runs: "Sent to me Sept. 10, 1879. H. Hale". Chief Johnson says he copied the book from one which is now at Bay of Quinte. It has been retranslated for the Bureau of Ethnology by Mrs. Smith, assisted by native Iroquois.

Manuscript, in the library of the Bureau of Ethnology. In Cherokee characters, with partial transliteration and English translation;
written in two large blank-books, each paged
1-96, partially filled. The songs and addresses were put into Cherokee characters by a native
named Aburun' (Swimmer)—a conjurer or medicine man—under Mr. Mooney's supervision, on East Cherokee Reservation, North Carolina, in the fall of 1887, and Mr. Mooney is transliterating and translating them.

— Vocabulary of the Upper Cherokee, formerly spoken in northwestern Georgia and the adjacent parts of Tennessee and North Carolina.

Manuscript, pp. 77-228, 4°, in the library of the Bureau of Ethnology, being a copy of Powell's Introduction to the Study of Indian Languages, 2d edition, completely filled. Obtained at Washington, D.C., in the spring of 1885, from N. J. Smith (Taatalih), chief of the East Cherokees, and revised on the Qualla or East Cherokee Reservation, in North Carolina, in the fall of 1887. On the blank leaves at the end of the book are many local names, with meanings, pertaining to the old Cherokee country.

Throughout this vocabulary Mr. Mooney has noted, in pencil, the slight changes in orthography required by the Middle and Lower Cherokee dialects, as a basis for the compilation of a parallel vocabulary of each of these dialects. These he is now engaged in elaborating. He was assisted with the middle dialect by James and David Blythe, on the East Cherokee Reservation, North Carolina, in the fall of 1887, and with the lower dialect by Chikillili, an old man who was the only one of the East Cherokees speaking this dialect, in November, 1887.

Lewis H. Morgan was born Aurora, Cayuga County, New York, November 21, 1818. He was graduated by Union College, Schenectady, in the class of 1840. Returning from college to Aurora, Mr. Morgan joined a secret society composed of the young men of the village and known as the Grand Order of the Iroquois. This had a great influence upon his future career and studies. The order was instituted for sport and amusement, but its organization was modeled on the governmental system of the Six Nations; and, chiefly under Mr. Morgan's direction and leadership the objects of the order were extended, if not entirely changed, and its purposes improved. To become better acquainted with the social polity of the Indians, young Morgan visited the aborigines remaining in New York, a mere remnant, but yet retaining, to a great extent, their ancient laws and customs; and he went so far as to be adopted as a member by the Senecas. Before the Council of the Order, in the years 1841, 1845, and 1849, he read a series of papers on the Iroquois, which, under the nom de plume of "Skeuandoah" were published as above. Mr. Morgan died in Rochester, N. Y., December 17, 1881.

"It may have been printed at the instance of the Rev. Dr. Eleazar Wheelock, or by the Boston Commissioners of the (Scotch) Society
for Propagating Christian Knowledge, for the use of the missionaries and school-masters sent from New England to the Six Nations.

"Wm. Weyman was employed by Sir Wm.
Johnson, in 1762, to print a new edition of the Mohawk Prayer-Book, and began the work
early in 1763, under the supervision of the Rev.
Dr. Barclay. Its progress was interrupted by the death of Dr. Barclay, in 1764, and less than half the book was printed when Weyman died,
in July, 1768. In the meantime several missionaries had gone from New England to the Six Nations; Mr. Cornelius Bennett, a catechist of the Episcopal Church, was teaching school among the Mohawks in 1761; Mr. C. J.
Smith (accompanying young Joseph Brant)
and the Rev. Samuel Kirkland went, the same year, from Lebanon, as missionaries to the same field—sent by the Boston Commissioners, and several others were preparing themselves at Lebanon for this mission. This Prayer-Book
and Catechism was probably printed for the use of those missionaries and their Indian

The earlier copies had become very scarce, and more were greatly needed. The work was superintended by Rev. A. Nelles, who had long been chief missionary among the Mohawks and Tuscaroras, and he was assisted by John Hill, a Mohawk catechist, who translated the Collects and some offices never before printed in Mohawk.

Onasakenrat was born on his father's farm, near Oka, Canada, September 4, 1845. At fourteen years of age he was sent to Montreal College to be educated for the priesthood, remaining there about four years. He was afterwards converted to Protestantism and became an evangelical preacher. On June 15, 1877, the Catholic church at Oka was burned, and Chief Joseph was tried for the offence, but was not convicted. He died suddenly, February 8, 1881, at Caughnawaga.

According to the New York Herald of February 9, 1881, "he translated from the English the New Testament and Moody and Sankey's Hymns, and at the time of his death was engaged in translating the remainder of the Bible into Iroquois." And from "The Friend," vol. 54, pp. 222, we learn that at the time of his death "he was continuing his literary labor and had reached the Epistle to the Hebrews, on which he was working."

Onondaga. [Book of rites.]

Manuscript, 8 ll. note paper, dated top of 1.2 "Onondaga Castle, June 2, 1873." In the library of Major J. W. Powell, Washington, D. C.; obtained by the late Mrs. Erminie A. Smith at the Onondaga reservation in New York State, September, 1884. It was copied by Chief La Fort from one written by his father. The manuscript has been translated by Mr. Horatio Hale and published in his Iroquois Book of Rites under the title The Book of the Younger Nations. It has since been retranslated literally by Mrs. Smith, aided by J. N. B. Hewitt, Albert Cusick, and Abram Hill, native Iroquois. According to Mrs. Smith, the forms of expression, adjective endings, etc. are largely Oneida.

It contains simply the condoling address, and no other part of the ceremony.

Onondaga. [Portion of the installation ceremonies of a condolence council.]

Manuscript, 16 ll. and fragments of 3 ll. folio, being a portion of an account book; in the library of Major J. W. Powell, Washington, D. C. There is no heading to the text, which looks as though it might begin in the middle of a sentence. At the top of both pp. 3 and 4 (the pagination is modern) we read: "Onondaga Reservation, June 9, 1861." "Ne Genesis, Chap. 3" begins p. 8, and "Ne Matthew, Chapter 23, 12," p. 10. On p. 15 is the heading "Ne St. Luke, xxvi, 5c." "Psalm Chapter xxxiv," p. 19. "St. Matthew, Chapter v," p. 20. P. 21 is headed "Onondaga Castle, Feb. 1, 1865" and contains a portion of a letter in English, unsigned, which extends to and occupies a portion of page 22. P. 23 is headed "Onondaga Indian Reservation, N. Y., March 13, 1865" and contains a paragraph in English as to cession of lands. P. 24 is headed "Onondaga Indian Reservation, N.

Y., June 22, 1865," and p. 25 "Onondaga Castle, N. Y., November 22, 1866," both containing matter in Onondaga.

This manuscript was found by the late Mrs. Erminie A. Smith among the Onondagas and is said to have been written by Chief David Jones. It has been translated in full for the Bureau of Ethnology by Mrs. Smith, assisted by J. N. B. Hewitt, Albert Cusick, and Abram Hill, native, Iroquois. The manuscript contains a number of questions put to the candidate, his replies to the same, résumé of duties of the new chief to his colleagues and to his people, and their duty to him. It contains, also, quotations from a condoling speech by a large tree man (Oneida), and forms of repentance of wrong deeds done by the chiefs. To a certain extent Oneida idioms occur to the exclusion of those of other Iroquois dialects.

[Boston, Mission Press, 1830.]

No title page, heading as above; pp. 9-48 (sigla. 2-6, 8°). I take the date from Ludewig's Literature of American Languages, p. 38, where it is said: "Only four sheets (pp. 9-40) printed; by the invention of Sequoyah's new alphabet, the work was stopped in its further progress."

Directly beneath the above heading is the subordinate one "Alphabet," the explanation of which extends to p. 12; then follow: Remarks on the alphabet, pp. 12-14; Accentuation, p. 15; The parts of speech (article, noun, pronoun, adjective), pp. 15-48.

Apparently the work breaks off in the middle of the remarks on the adjective.

Manuscript; no title page; contents 1 l. text pp. 1-213, 12°. The hand-writing is admirable, small and compact and perfectly legible, and the manuscript, bound in leather, is well preserved. Obtained by M. H. Pred'homme, of Windsor, Ontario, at Detroit, Mich., who has kindly loaned it to me for description.

The author has written his rules and notes in Latin, while the equivalents of the Mohawk examples usually appear in French, though occasionally in Latin. On p. 1 appears the heading "Elementa grammaticae huronicae," and the principal divisions of the work are as follows: Index rerum, pref. 1.—De litteris, pp. 1-2.—De verbis, pp. 2-62.—De syntaxi, pp. 63-66.—De adverbis, pp. 67-75.—De prepositionibus, pp. 76-78.—Pronomina, &c., pp. 79-81.—Quedam adverbia, pp. 82-98.—Pp. 99-102 are blank.—Quedam substantiva, pp. 103-171.—Pp. 172-174 are blank.—Miscellanea [consisting of]: Partes hominis, Parente, Animaux, &c., pp. 175-194.—[Census of the] Village Huron de L'île aux bois-blancs en 1747 [and of other villages and bands], pp. 195-201.—Pp. 202-208 are blank. Varia [consisting of]: Nations sauvages, Nations policiées, Places aux François, Places aux Anglais, Rivière, Pointes, &c., pp. 209-213.

M. Prid'homme, in order to set aside any doubt of the authenticity of the manuscript, has kindly furnished me a photographic reproduction of a page of manuscript in Père Potier's handwriting and bearing his signature a number of times—a Registre des enfans François baptisés à la Mission des Hurons de La Pointe du Montréal, 1702; this is clearly in the same handwriting as that of the grammar.

In the Historical Magazine, vol. 2, p. 198, a manuscript Huron grammar of 105 pp. [il. 7], by the Rev. Peter Potier, is described as follows:

"It seems based on Chaumonot's, many phrases being identical; but much, if not most, of it is new. It is methodical, well arranged, divided into chapters, and, in fact, a work which no time should be lost in putting into a permanent shape. After the grammar are some pages not numbered, containing questions for one learning, a scheme of relationship with the various possessive adjectives, an abridgment of the Racines, and, curiously enough, a census of the Huron village in 1745, with a very valuable list of Indian tribes, English and French towns, etc., with their names in Huron and French."

No indication is given of the whereabouts of the manuscript thus described, and it is possible it is the same as or a copy of that handled by me.

Preston (Capt. William). [Vocabulary of the Potawatamy, of the Miami, of the Delaware, and of the Cherokee.]

Manuscript in possession of Col. John Mason Brown, Louisville, Ky. Recorded in a blank book 6<sup>½</sup> by 8 inches in size, probably the orderly book of the company commanded by Captain Preston. The date January 29, 1793, appears on the inside of the cover.

The Potawatamy vocabulary covers three pages and consists of 72 words and phrases, including the numerals 1-6. This is followed by geographical names in the Miami, which cover one page and give the Indian designation of the Ohio, Kentucky, Kanawa, and other rivers, sixteen in all. The following page is occupied by a similar list in Delaware, one page, and this is followed by a list of words and phrases in the Miami, occupying six pages and containing 139 words and phrases.

Following the last mentioned is a vocabulary of the Shawnee language, with certain remarks on pronunciation of the aspirates and accentuation of syllables. The first page bears date February 7, 1790, at Greenville. There are nineteen pages of this vocabulary. The English words are arranged alphabetically, or approximately so, followed by the Indian equivalents, amounting to 481 words and phrases.

Following this Shawnee vocabulary is a single page of Cherokee vocabulary consisting of 20 words.

A copy of the manuscript is in the library of the Bureau of Ethnology.

Title from Mr. A. Glitsch, of the Universal-Bibliothek, Herrnhut, Saxony, where the manuscript is preserved.

"Jno. Christopher Pyrlæus, the Mohawk scholar, was born at Pausa, Volgland, in 1713. Studied for the ministry at the University of Leipzig between 1733 and 1738. Here he became attached to the Brethren, visited Herrnhut, and accepted an appointment as missionary. Sailed from London in company with Büttner and Zander, and reached Bethlehem October 19, 1740. Commenced the study of the Mohawk at Tulpehocken, in January, 1743, under Weiser's direction. The Brethren having failed to procure a Mohawk Indian from Freehold to instruct in that language such of their number as were set apart for the mission, Pyrlæus undertook this, and on the 4th of February, 1744, opened his Indian school. In September of 1745 his first translations of hymns into Mohican appeared. This was the beginning of a collection for the use of the mission. In November of 1751 he sailed for England, where he labored until 1750. He next went to Germany, where he died May 28, 1785."—Reichel.

Rand (Rev. Silas Tertius). Mohawk vocabulary, by Silas T. Rand. [1876.]

Manuscript, about 200 pp. folio, bound. English and Mohawk, alphabetically arranged according to the English. The Mohawk equivalent is lacking in many instances. Concerning this work and others mentioned below, all of which he has kindly sent me for examination, Mr. Rand writes me as follows:

"I spent two months, in the year 1876, I think it was, in Tuscarora, Ont., among the Mohawk Indians, and made the acquisition of a knowledge of their language a special object. I had secured, to assist me, a Mohawk grammar written in French by a retired French priest of Montreal. I soon learned the pronunciation so well that I could read them quite fluently (for I took care to write the words phonetically), and I wrote out from the mouths of several Indians, some of them educated and some uneducated, long lists of words and grammatical inflections.

"The following winter I devoted a good deal of time to Mohawk. I filled out my big book from the English dictionary in alphabetical order, all the words that I surmised I would be able to find. Then I entered all those I had already learned the meaning of. Then, with the English and Mohawk books before me, I hunted. I wrote out a number of chapters in columns, placing the Mohawk equivalent opposite the English, so that in looking over the pile I noticed the other day that I had, besides my big book, two or three little ones, carefully bound, and a pile of these unbound papers."

— [Mohawk vocabulary, and words used in John, Chap. 1. 1876.]

Manuscript, 38 pp. 4<sup>o</sup>, unbound; recorded in a National Copy-Book. The vocabulary, alphabetically arranged according to the English, occupies pp. 1-25. Words used in John, Chap. 1 (Mohawk and English), pp. 26-38.

— No. 2. Mohawk vocabulary, by Silas T. Rand. [1873.]

Manuscript, about 175 pp. 4<sup>o</sup>, bound. This is one of the books mentioned by Mr. Rand in the above note. It bears the date "Tuscarora, Aug. 8, 1870," and in arrangement and contents is similar to the large folio. The Mohawk vocabulary extends alphabetically from A to S, and is continued in the following:

— [Mohawk words, and a translation of the 9th and 11th chapters of Luke and of the 9th chapter of Mark, Mohawk and English in parallel columns, with a few sentences in Mohawk and English. 1876.]

Manuscript, about 125 pp. 4<sup>o</sup>, bound. The first portion of this book contains the Lord's prayer in Mohawk, with interlinear English translation of the first few words, and a list of adverbs. Then the Mohawk vocabulary is taken up at the letter T and continued through the remaining letters. The remainder of the book is occupied with the gospel translations, except a few pages at the end, which contain "short sentences in the Mohawk tongue."

— [The Gospel of | Mark. | Capt. Brant's Mohawk translation. [1876.]]

Manuscript, 48 pp. 4<sup>o</sup>, unbound. It extends only to the fourteenth verse of the third chapter. A discontinuous interlinear English translation runs throughout. The interlinear translation is mostly by Mr. Rand, with emendations thereof and fillings in by Joab Martin, a Mohawk Indian.

— [Mohawk, Seneca, and Tuscarora words. 1877.]

Manuscript, 4<sup>o</sup>, unbound. The Mohawk portion of this manuscript consists of upwards of 50 pages, Mohawk and English, and contains conjugation of the verb to see. There are only a few Seneca words. These are followed by a list of 61 Tuscarora words, with English signification, taken down by Mr. Rand from the mouth of an Indian named Johnson, in Tuscarora. Some remarks on the "Difficulties in translating into Mohawk" &c. follow.

[—] Numerals in | Mohawk, Tuscarora, Cayugian | Seneca, & Oneidah | Mohawk sentences and a list of Mohawk words.

Manuscript, 16 pp. 4<sup>o</sup>, unbound. The numerals were obtained by Mr. Rand, in 1873, from James Jenison, of Tuscarora, Ont., who spoke all these dialects.

Rev. Silas Tertius Rand was born in King's County, Nova Scotia, May 18, 1810, of the descendants of immigrants who came over from New England to occupy the lands of the Acadian French after their expulsion. Owing to the limited means of his parents, his attendance at school was irregular, amounting in the whole to about four years. His study of English grammar was not begun until he had reached the age of 22. In April, 1834, he entered the Baptist Seminary at Wolfville, where he made some progress in Latin. His stay here was of short duration, but he pushed forward his study of Latin and Greek while working at his trade—that of a stonemason and bricklayer—devoting all his leisure moments to study. That same summer he began to preach. He again attended the Wolfville Academy a few weeks during this summer (1834), and still again a few weeks some years subsequently. In the summer of 1836 he commenced the study of Hebrew, which, together with that of Latin and Greek, he continued during the following winter at Halifax.

Mr. Rand relates how he was led to the study of the Micmac, in which he has published a large number of works and has a great many unpublished manuscripts, as follows: "In the spring of 1845 the Baptists of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, with whom I was connected, sent a missionary to Burmah. This being the first event of the kind which had occurred in the Maritime Provinces, led to a good deal of discussion and serious reflection, especially on the subject of missions. My attention was directed to the wandering tribes of our own country, and I resolved to acquire a knowledge of the Micmac language. I began the study in the spring of 1840. I got very little help from books. I had to compose my own grammar and vocabulary, and I would have given up the study as a hopeless case had I not come in contact with a Frenchman who had been brought up among the English and had turned Indian when he was a wild young sailor, and who, when I discovered him at Charlottetown, P. E. Island, spoke English, French, and Micmac with equal ease."

In the year 1846 Mr. Rand took up his residence with his family at Charlottetown. In the autumn of 1849 the Micmac Missionary Society was formed, being formally organized the following year. Mr. Rand engaged to devote his whole time to the work of the mission. For about three years he maintained his residence at Charlottetown, acquiring a more intimate acquaintance with the Micmac language, into which he translated portions of the Bible. The society, deeming it desirable to found a missionary establishment, recommended Mr. Rand to proceed to the neighbourhood of Hautesport, Nova Scotia, and Judge of its eligibility for the purpose contemplated. It was selected, and thither, in November, 1853, Mr. Rand removed with his family. Until 1865 he was connected with and received a salary from the society, but for about twenty years there has been no organized society, and Mr. Rand has continued his missionary and linguistic labors without any regular assistance.

At present (September, 1888) Mr. Rand is engaged in reading proof of a Micmac dictionary, which is being published by the Canadian government.

In the right upper corner of the title-page appear the dates 1799, 1800, and 1810, evidently dates of delivery of the sermon. French equivalents of Mohawk words are interlined here and there.

Under date of Dec. 20, 1886, Rev. M. Mainville, pastor of St. Regis, writes me as follows:

"The manuscripts now in my possession, besides those you know of, are chiefly sermons on dogmas and morals, composed by several missionaries—Rinfret, Roupe, Jos. Marcoux, and McDonell—in all probably 200, on separate sheets of paper or in small copy-books and without any common title. I am copying them to form out of them one or two volumes of about 900 pp. in all, to save them from destruction, some of them being very old. I have also prayers written by Rev. Fr. Gordon, a Jesuit, towards the middle of the last century. It is probable that of these some at least are merely copies."

Antoine Rinfret was born at Quebec, June 18, 1756; ordained November 11, 1781; at Sault St. Louis (Caughnawaga), 1798-1802; at St. Regis, 1806; died at Lachine, March 9, 1814.—Shea.

Published by John Wentworth Sanborn, Perry, N. Y. [1880 ?] (*)

200 pp. 16°. Title from the Bibliography of the alumni and faculty of Wesleyan University, by G. Brown Goode and Newton P. Scudder.

A new edition is in preparation. The title-page, a copy of which has been sent me by Mr. Sanborn, is as follows:

[—] Hymnal | in the | Seneca Indian Language | together with | A Few of the Psalms of David. |

1884: | John Wentworth Sanborn, | O yo ga weh, (Clear-Sky) | Batavia, N. Y.

Title reverse notice 1 l. preface verso key 1 l. text (entirely in Seneca except English headings) pp. 5-7, 242.

Under date of May, 1884, Mr. Sanborn wrote me: "I send you advance sheets [pp. 1-36] of my new Indian hymn book as far as it is put in book shape. I have issued many hymns heretofore in leaflets and small collections. I am now putting them all in this one volume." And under date of Oct. 20, 1886, as follows: "I have not had the opportunity to finish the Seneca hymn book. Eighty pages are printed; the material for the entire work is in shape for type setting, and all preliminary arrangements are made. I hope in a few months to present you with the completed work."

My own copy differs somewhat from the above; the heading is in different type and the second line is omitted; the tail-piece in the copy described is a lyre lying across a music book; in mine the lyre is erect and beneath it is a paragraph to the effect that the leaflets are for gratuitous distribution among the Senecas.

16°. I have seen only the title-page; this was furnished me by Mr. Sanborn, Aug. 3, 1883, accompanied by the following note:

"I send enclosed a copy of the title-page of my Indian hymn book. It is to be printed from plates, and will soon be in readiness. I am not now able to furnish more than the title-page, as several additions are to be made, and they are not quite completed; for instance, on page iv—counting the title-page as 1—I shall give a complete list of Seneca characters, together with directions for pronouncing them, &c."

Perhaps this is to be an enlarged and revised edition of the Hymnal of 1880, titled above.

Henry Rowe Schoolcraft was born in Watervliet, N. Y., March 29, 1793. He entered Union College in 1807, made his first expedition to the Mississippi River in 1817, and several others afterwards. In 1822 he was appointed agent for Indian affairs on the northwestern frontier, where he married a granddaughter of Wabojoc, an Indian war chief, and resided in that country until 1841. About 1830, while a member of the territorial legislature of Michigan, he introduced the system, which was to some extent adopted, of forming local names from the Indian language. In 1847 Congress directed him to procure statistics and other information respecting the history, condition, and prospects of the Indian tribes of the United States. He resided many years among the Indians and zealously improved his opportunities for studying their habits, customs, and languages. He died in Washington, D. C., Dec. 10, 1864.

This manuscript is a copy and is owned by
Col. John Mason Brown, of Louisville, Ky., who gives me its history as follows: "Dr. Linton, of Saint Louis, was an ardent Catholic and warm
personal friend of Father De Smet. The old father collected a number of pious diaries, memoranda, and legends for the amusement and edification
of Dr. Linton. I had seen this collection
years ago, and about three years since I
succeeded in getting hold of it for the purpose of copying it. It was then in the possession of Rev. Father Meyer, S. J., who was at the Jesuit College in Saint Louis. There was a great deal of matter not illustrative of Indian tradition,
custom, or language, and in having the copy
made I caused this (as I considered it) irrelevant matter to be omitted."

— [Grammatical sketch of the Tuscarora language.]

Manuscript, 250 unnumbered ll. folio, prepared during the years 1882 to 1884, with the assistance of Mr. J. N. B. Hewitt. A rough draft, remaining unfinished at Mrs. Smith's death.

Erminnie Adella Smith was born in Marcellus, N. Y., April 26, 1836, and died in Jersey City, N. J., June 9, 1886. Her maiden name was Platt. She was educated at Mrs. Willard's seminary in Troy, N. Y., and in 1855 married Simeon H. Smith, of Jersey City, N. J., which place was thenceforth her home. From childhood she devoted herself to the study of geology, both theoretically and practically, and as a result of her work had made one of the largest private collections in the country. She spent four years in Europe with her sons studying science and language, during which period she was graduated at the School of Mines, Freiberg, Saxony, and after her return gave frequent courses of lectures in parlors, and for charitable objects, on scientific and other subjects.

The material above described was collected by Mrs. Smith during the years 1879 to 1884, while in the employ of the Bureau of Ethnology, and it was the intention of the Bureau to include it in its series of publications. During most of her work she had the assistance of Mr. J. N. B. Hewitt, an educated member of the Tuscarora tribe, who is now engaged in completing her unfinished work. Throughout all these manuscripts, which are in the library of the Bureau of Ethnology, the Bureau alphabet, with a few modifications, has been used.

He graduated at Yale College in 1746, and commenced the study of the Indian language, with the intention of undertaking a mission among the Six Nations. It is particularly recorded of him that he formed a large and accurate vocabulary of the language of the Oneida tribe, which was deemed of great value. He spent some months in actual missionary labor in the western part of the Province of New York, and was ordained to the work of the ministry in 1748. He did not continue in the Indian mission, however, but removed to New Jersey in 1750. He died at Trenton, N. J., Dec. 27, 1784, in the 64th year of his age." —Sprague.

Manuscript, without title-page, pp. 1-568, folio, in the archives of the Roman Catholic church at Caughnawaga, Canada.

— [Histoire du peuple de Dieu.] (*)

Manuscript, 2 vols. 600 and 541 pp. 4<sup>o</sup>, in the Mohawk language; in the archives of the Catholic church at the Mission of L<sup>e</sup> des Deux Montagnes, Canada. The work is not divided into chapters, but is written continuously. It is beautifully written and well preserved. The following notice appears at the beginning of the first volume:

"Avis de l'annotateur. Le présent ouvrage a été composé par M. l'abbé François Auguste Magon de Terlavey, missionnaire d'abord à Sackets, 1754-1760, et ensuite au Lac des Deux Montagnes jusqu'à sa mort, arrivée le 17 mai 1777.

"L'auteur a suivi en l'abrégeant le P. Beruyer, et quelque, dans sa traduction, il a évité les défauts si justement reprochés au célèbre Jésuite, son ouvrage laisse toutefois beaucoup à désirer et aurait besoin d'être entièrement refondu, avant d'être mis à la lumière.

"Certains traits, par exemple, l'admirable chasteté du Patriarche Joseph qui aurait pu et dû être raconté dans tous les détails marqués dans la St<sup>e</sup> Ecriture, sont à peine indiqués, tandis que d'autres, qui auraient dû être écartés entièrement, se trouvent rapportés dans leurs plus meunes circonstances. Il paraît bien que le traducteur a vu après coup.

"M. J. C. Mathevet a été plus heureux dans la petite bible algonquine. Il s'est attaché uniquement aux traits principaux de l'Histoire Sainte; les a racontés dans un style irréprochable et les a accompagnés des réflexions les plus judicieuses. Ainsi a-t-on eu devoir de faire imprimer. La 1<sup>re</sup> partie, contenant l'historique de l'Ancien Testament, a paru en 1859 et la 2<sup>re</sup>, renfermant la concordance des Évangéliques, avec un court précis des Actes des Apôtres, en 1861.

"En revenant à M. de Terlavey nous ajouterons qu'une copie de son ouvrage, tout entière de sa propre main, a été donnée dans les dernières années à la Mission du Sault St Louis. Il manquait à celle-ci les 40 premières pages égarées depuis la mort de l'auteur, on ne sait comment; nous les avons transcrrites de la 1<sup>re</sup> copie en les accompagnant de diverses notes, qui, nous espérons, pourront être de quelque utilité aux nouveaux missionnaires."

The titles and descriptions of the above manuscripts by Terlalye, except the first, were furnished by the late Mrs. Erminnie A. Smith, who saw them during the fall of 1882 while prosecuting linguistic studies at the mission.

Père F. A. M. de Terlalye, priest of St. Sulpice, was born at St. Malo, in France, July 24, 1724, came to Canada September 15, 1754, and was ordained priest May 24, 1755. From 1754 to 1760 he was a missionary at La Galette, and from the latter date until his death, May 17, 1777, at Lac des Deux Montagnes, where he is buried. In addition to the above, he has, according to Cuog, written on the conjugation of the Mohawk verbs and made a literal translation of the Mohawk catechism.

"In the United States, Eleazer Williams, while a catechist at Oneida Castle, N. Y., undertook to revise the former Indian Prayer Book, under the advice of Bishop Hobart, who called for offerings for this proposed work in 1815. It was not published, however, until 1837, and then appeared as the compilation of Solomon Davis, Mr. Williams' successor. It was a small, plain book, and copies of it are still found among the New York Indians. Rev. Mr. Williams' own retranslation, a later work, was published about 1853, under direction of Bishop Wainwright, and the second [sic] edition, published in 1875, will serve to illustrate all.

"It differs so much from the others, that at first sight it seems as hard to find a likeness as to connect old English with modern. Compare, for instance, the first clause of the Lord's Prayer already given. After a while, however, old words are recognized with changed faces. In some of the hymns and anthems, taken directly from the earlier books, g and d reappear, but in most of them, as in the service itself, Mr. Williams' French tastes have quite altered spelling and pronunciation. If the question of the "Lost Dauphin" were now discussed, it might have some support from this book.

"In this New York edition English does not appear, except on the title-page; and all the offices translated occupy but 103 pages, with 38 pages of hymns added. In no edition is the English given with the hymns, which are often very sweetly sung in the various Indian villages in New York and Canada. This Prayer Book, published by our Indian Commission, contains the Morning and Evening Prayer, with the Litany complete, eight Psalms for the morning and evening of the first day of the month, the Catechism, and the Family Prayers. It does not compare favorably with the larger Canada edition [see Nelles (A.) and Hill (J.)], and has not the educational use belonging to the printing of both languages.

"It is said to be in the Mohawk language, but this must be understood with some reservation. Although Mr. Williams was brought up as a Mohawk, he labored mainly for the Oneidas, and this book was prepared for their use. The two dialects closely resemble each other, while differing from those of the remaining nations, and here seems an attempt to mingle the two, and even to modify the language. Many words are alike in these two dialects, and others differ greatly, but are well understood, because generally descriptive.

"An experienced missionary tells the writer that 'our Prayer Book is the Canada one, modified by using the Oneida dialect wherever possible. The Prayer Book and Scripture translations appear to be done without regard to the rules of grammar, and are not well done. T and d, g and k, y and t, are often used the one for the other. The Canada book retains the guttural sounds of the old Indians; our book is Frenchified as much as possible; but both, where alike, are the same language, except, perhaps, here and there a word. The translators have made both books more difficult than they need to be, through ignorance of both English and Indian."—"Beauchamp.

" This translation is made by the noted Indian missionary, son of a chief of the Caughnawaga tribe, and a descendant of one of the daughters of the Rev. John Williams of Deerfield, who had been carried away into captivity with her father, and became the wife of an Indian who assumed her name. The missionary Williams became famous from a claim made for him by Mr. Hanson, that he was the son of the unfortunate Louis XVI, who was believed to have perished under the cruel treatment of Simon the Jacobin shoemaker. Many extraordinary coincidences were adduced in favor of this hypothesis by Mr. Hanson, and subsequently by the Rev. Dr. Vinton."—Field.

"The translation of the Gospel of Matthew is nearly or quite completed and will be published without any delay."—Missionary Herald, 1829, p. 185.

"One thousand copies of the Gospel of Matthew in the Cherokee language and in the new characters of Guess have been printed at the Cherokee National Press at New Echota. The translation was made by the Rev. S. A. Worcester, the Missionary of the Board stationed at that place, assisted by Mr. Boudinot, the editor of the Cherokee Phoenix. A very large portion of the members of the mission churches are now able to read this portion of the Holy Scriptures."—Missionary Herald, 1829, p. 365.

In a letter from Rev. Mr. Worcester to the governor of Georgia, in the summer of 1829, he says: "As to the means used for this end, aside from the regular preaching of the word, I have had the honor to commence the work of publishing portions of the Holy Scriptures and other religious books in the language of the people. I have the pleasure of sending to your excellency a copy of the Gospel of Matthew, of a hymn book, and a small tract, consisting chiefly of extracts from Scripture, which, with the aid of an interpreter, I have been able to prepare and publish. The tract of Scripture extracts has been published since my trial and acquittal by the superior court."

The Missionary Herald, Nov., 1833, p. 424, in a list of books in the Cherokee language, includes the "Gospel of Matthew, 1829, 124 pp., 1,000 copies."

Samuel Austin Worcester, the son of Rev. Leonard Worcester, was born at Worcester, Mass., January 19, 1798, removing to Peacham, Vt., when quite young, his father, who had been a printer, having been appointed pastor of the Congregational Church at that place. In the fall of 1815 he entered the University of Vermont at Burlington and graduated with the honors of his class in 1819. In 1821 he entered the Theological Seminary at Andover, graduating in 1823, and was ordained to the ministry August 25, 1825.

On July 10, 1825, he was married to Miss Ann Orr, of Bedford, N. H., and together, on August 31 of that year, they started from Boston to engage in missionary work among the Cherokees, arriving at Brainerd, East Tennessee, October 25, remaining there until 1828, when they removed to New Echota, where a printing press was set up and put into operation. While here he was arrested and imprisoned several times because of his opposition to the laws of Georgia in relation to the Cherokee lands.

In 1834 Dr. Worcester returned to Brainerd, beyond the chartered limits of Georgia, and in 1835 with his family removed to Dwight, Ind.

Ter., and in the succeeding fall to Union Mission, on Grand River, where he again set up his mission press and had printing done both for the Cherokees and Creeks. In Dec., 1836, he removed to Park Hill, from which mission most of the publications in Cherokee were issued.

Mrs. Worcester having died May 23, 1840, about a year later he was married to Miss Erminia Nash. Dr. Worcester died at Park Hill, where he is buried, April 20, 1859.

Miss Nevada Couch, in her Pages of Cherokee Indian History, from which the above notes are taken, says: "He at one time commenced preparing a geography for the Cherokees, and pursued it with much zest for a while, and abandoned it because he saw it would take too much time from his work on the Bible. He had both a grammar and a dictionary of the Cherokee language in a forward state of preparation, when he was compelled to leave the place of his labors at New Echota. These manuscripts, with all the rest of his effects, were snuck with a steamboat on the Arkansas."

It is very probable that he was the translator of a number of books for which he is not given credit here, especially those portions of the scripture which are herein not assigned to any name. Indeed it is safe to say that during the thirty-four years of his connection with the Cherokees but little was done in the way of translating in which he had not a share. His daughter, Mrs. A. E. W. Robertson, has been a laborer and teacher among the Muskoki Indians for many years, and has prepared and published a number of books in that language.

Mr. N. H. Parker, of Versailles, N. Y., has supplied me with the following sketch of this author:

"He was born in Hanover, N. H., September
7, 1803, and graduated at Andover Theological Seminary in 1831, going directly to the Senecas
on the Buffalo Reservation as a missionary, for which he had been fitting himself, and immodiately entering upon his life-long work in the field allotted to him. He remained with the Senecas on the Buffalo Reservation until the year 1845, when he removed with the Indians
to the Cattaraugus Reservation, where he remained until his death, April 13, 1875.

"After entering upon his field of labor, he became convinced that a knowledge of the Seneca language would greatly aid him in his work, and began its study with great zeal.
Being a good linguist, and having a thorough knowledge of the classics, he soon spoke the Seneca language with fluency. Having mastered it, he commenced the translation of a part of the book of Genesis and the epistle of James.
He also prepared two editions of hymns. Transferring the work of translation to the Catta-raugus Reservation, he here completed the work of translating the four gospels, issued a

He first came to America about 1739; began the study of the Indian languages in 1745, and about 1750 commenced his missionary labors among the Indians, which he continued until his death. He traversed Massachusetts and Connecticut, New York, Pennsylvania, and Ohio, entered Michigan and Canada, preaching to many nations in many tongues. He brought the Gospel to the Mohicans and Wampanoags, to the Nanticoke and Shawnees, to the Chippewas, Ottawas, and Wyandots, to the Unamis, Unalachigos, and Monseys of the Delaware race, to the Oneondagas, Cayugas, and Senecas of the Six Nations. I have been at some pains to procure reliable data with which to construct an appropriate biographic sketch of this native author, who was so closely identified with all the early literary work among the Cherokee and so long connected with the Rev. S. A. Worcester in his various translations. I regret to say that my efforts have not met with success, although I had a positive promise from his son, Wm. P. Boudinot, a Cherokee delegate at Washington, D. C., to furnish me with the desired information. Under the circumstances I avail myself of the best printed account known to me, by making the following extract from an article by Mr. Geo.
E. Foster, entitled "Journalism among the Cherokees," which appeared in the Magazine
of American History, vol. 18, pp. 65-70.

"But if the newspaper [Cherokee Phoenix]
died ingloriously, far more so was the fate of its editor, Elias Boudinot. In his early day he was a very promising lad, who attracted the attention of some missionaries. His name was Weite, but he was given the name of Elias Boudinot, after the governor of New Jersey
and the president of the American Bible Society,
for it was the custom for a Cherokee youth
to be given an English name when he entered an English school. Elias Boudinot was one of those placed in the mission school at Cornwall, Connecticut. He was good-looking and pleasing in manners, and was welcomed into the homes of many of the good families in that quiet village. Among the maidens of the place was Hattie Gold, "the village pet," who was given somewhat to romantic ideas. The young Indian, as the story goes, was frequently received at her father's house, and, unthought of
by the parents, a mutual attachment sprung
up, which ripened into love. It was not long before the little town of Cornwall was stirred
to a fever heat by the announcement that Hattie had plighted troth with Boudinot. Her parents were fiery in their opposition, but tears or entreaties were of no avail, and the words were spoken that linked their fortunes
for life. Taking his bride to Georgia, Boudinot
dwelt among his tribe, conspicuous as a scholar
and one favored by the Great Spirit. His life was a busy one, as he aided the missionaries in their work, translating portions of the scripture,
tracts, and hymns. During the administration of Andrew Jackson he took a prominent part in administering the affairs of the Cherokees, and especially toward the last, took a leading part in making arrangements for his people to emigrate from the land they loved so well. Precious to these sons of the forest were their homes, and the burial-places of their fathers. While a few favored the treaty of 1835, the majority did not. It is a matter of historical record that the Ridges, Boudinot,
Bell, Rogers, and others who signed the treaty
very suddenly changed their minds in respect to the policy of a removal. They had been as forward as any of the opposite party in protesting against the acts of Georgia, and as much opposed to making any treaty or sale of their country up to the time of the mission of Schermerhorn as any in the nation. Suspected of treachery, bribery, and corruption, the opposition was so fiercely aroused, that on June 22, 1839, these men were cruelly assassinated. Mr. Boudinot was decoyed from the house he was erecting a short distance from his residence, and set upon with knives and hatchets. He survived his wounds just long enough for his wife and friends to reach him, though he was insensible."

Title from Mr. W. Eames, from copy in the Lenox Library.

On page 56 of this catalogue there is given another title of the 1655 edition of this work. Since that page was put in type Mr. Wilberforce Eames, of the Lenox Library, and the present editor of Sabin's Dietenary, has called my attention to the fact that my title does not agree with that in the Lenox Library copy, nor with that given by any previous cataloguer. So far as I could judge, the title-page of the Congress copy was genuine; but that the point might be decided, I had a photograph made of it for Mr. Eames' inspection. His opinion of it is as follows: "After a careful examination of the Congress title to Donck, with the date 1655, as shown in your photograph, and a comparison with the Lenox originals of both editions, I have come to the conclusion that it is a modern production, either of penwork or of lithograph from penwork. Evidence of this is found in the variation between similar letters

In the same lines, and in a very marked degree in the roundness of the vignette. These differences do not appear in the authentic titles of 1655 and 1656, in both of which the vignettes are identical. It is my opinion, therefore, that this title is a fac-simile copied from the edition of 1656, with which title it appears to agree, as far as it goes, line for line, word for word, and letter for letter, nearly. The only differences I notice are in the spelling of the word 'Docteur,' the omission of the two lines, 'Den tweeden Druck,' and 'Mot Priviliege voor 15 Jaren,' and the alteration of the date."

Upon receipt of this I secured permission of the authorities of the Lenox Library, and of the Library of Congress, to have fac-similes made of the respective title-pages, and they are included in the body of this work.

Foster (George Everett). Journalism among the Cherokee Indians.

In Magazine of Am. Hist. vol. 18, pp. 65-70, New York, [1887], 8°.

Related principally to the periodicals Cherokee Phoenix, Cherokee Messenger, and Cherokee Advocate, including interesting details concerning Se-quo-yah and his alphabet, Elias Boudinot, "the first aboriginal editor on this continent," etc. Speaking of the Cherokee Advocate, Mr. Foster says: "Perhaps one of the most remarkable features of the Advocate was the publication from week to week, in the Se-quo-yah alphabet, of chapters from Bunyan's Pilgrim's Progress, which was prepared also in book form." I have seen no copy of this work, nor any other mention of it. The article closes with the following statement: "A small paper was recently started at Dwight for the purpose of furnishing religious reading, printed in both English and Se-quo-yah's alphabet."

Gahuni (—). [Cherokee sacred formulas, Bible texts, &c.]

Manuscript, Cherokee characters: a long folio blank book of 140 pages, nearly filled. Obtained by Mr. James Mooney on the East Cherokee reservation in North Carolina in the autumn of 1888, and now in the library of the Bureau of Ethnology.

Gahuni, who died about 1860, was at once a preacher and conjuror, and was evidently a man of superior intelligence. There are but a few of the sacred formulas, but these few are carefully written, with explicit directions as to ceremony and application. The manuscript is exceptionally neat in appearance. After his death the book fell into the hands of his children, who have added a good deal of scribbling. One of them, who speaks English, has inserted several pages of an English-Cherokee vocabulary, in which the English word, written in English script, is followed by the corresponding Cherokee word, together with an approximation of the English sound, both written in Cherokee characters. The book was obtained from Gahuni's widow.

Gatigwanasti, also known as Wilnoti, the author of this valuable collection, was one of their most noted doctors and conjurors. He died in the spring of 1887; the manuscript was obtained from his son. The formulas are well written in bold characters.

Laverlochère (Père Jean Nicolas).

See title on p. 105.

Rev. Jean Nicolas Laverlochère was born in France. He began to work among the Indians in the year 1845. In 1847 he went for the first time to James's Bay, and visited the Indians of the Moose and Albany forts. In 1851, on his way back from Moose Factory, he was struck with palsy, and had to be carried to the mission of Lake Temiskamingue. He died there in 1855.

He had translated into the Muskegon dialect the catechism and some prayers, but never had anything printed. His manuscripts were left to his successor and companion, the Rev. André Garin.

Lowrey (George).

See title on p. 111.

Maj. George Lowrey was born at Tahakeege, on the Tennessee River, near Tellico Blockhouse, about the year 1770, and died in October, 1852. He was one of the Cherokee delegation, headed by the distinguished John Watts, who visited President Washington at Philadelphia in 1791 or 1792. He was one of the captains of light horse companies that were appointed to enforce the laws of the nation in 1808 and 1810. He was a member of the national committee, organized in 1814. He was one of the delegation who negotiated the treaty of 1819 at Washington City. He was a member of the convention that framed the constitution of the nation in 1827; and also that of 1830. He was elected assistant principal chief under the constitution in 1832; which office he filled many years. At the time of his death he was a member of the executive council.

He always took a lively interest in the translation of the scriptures into the Cherokee language, in which work he rendered important aid. One of his written addresses on temperance has been for several years [prior to 1852] in circulation as a tract in the Cherokee language.—Worcester.

— [Cherokee personal names.]

Manuscript, filling pages 94-204 of a quarto blank book, in the library of the Bureau of Ethnology; an alphabetical list of about 400 personal names, being all the Cherokee names now in use among the East Cherokee, together with others from old treaties and records. All those names which can be explained are analyzed, and the first person present of the principal verb is given in each instance.

Collected on the East Cherokee reservation, North Carolina, during the summer of 1888.

— [Cherokee plant names, analyzed and scientifically classified, with uses.]

Manuscript, filling a quarto blank book of 204 pp.; a list of about 400 species used by the East Cherokee for medical, food, or other purposes, with their various uses described and the Cherokee names analyzed. The first person present of the principal verb from which the name is derived is also given in each case. Obtained on the East Cherokee reservation in North Carolina in 1887-1888, and now in the library of the Bureau of Ethnology. It contains also drawings of 35 medical plants made by an Indian doctor.

The plants have been identified and their scientific names added by Prof. L. F. Ward, of the United States Geological Survey.

— [Cherokee sacred formulas transliterated.]

Manuscript, pp. 1-200 of a quarto blank book, in the library of the Bureau of Ethnology, bearing transliterations of sacred formulas written in the Cherokee text in the "Kanaheta Ani Tealagi Eti" — the following work:

— Transliteration: Hia | Kanaheta Ani Tsalagi Eti | tsanehei uninahelihhi | ngl̄wali | ditanduwd, yñweli, ganahiluñta, atsu'tiyi, danawh, anots, | didalatli, adadulssti, unulgisti | ile wuwaktoni | Nñdå tsuawatlisanñhi

ile tsuwasianñhi | digayaleta unñstñ tsun'welamuh | A'yñini, Tsiskwa, Gatigwanasti, Gahuni, Ahwanita, Takwathili, Inali, | Yññgulegiile wnnñktñi. | Tiskwanl tsuaneltanñhi: Wili Westi tantilastanñhi. | Elawatihi, Gyalena. | 1888.

Free translation: Ancient Cherokee formulas handed down from the past, concerning medicine, love, hunting, fishing, war, the ball play, life conjuring, self-protection, dances, etc. Collected and edited by Nñdå (James Mooney), from the original manuscripts of Swimmer, Bird, Belt, Gahuni, Young Deer, Catawba Killer, Black Fox, Climbing Bear, etc. James Blythe (Tiskwanl, Chestnut Bread), interpreter; W. W. Long (Wili Westi), copyist. Yellow Hill (Cherokee), North Carolina, 1888.

Manuscript, Cherokee characters (transliteration given above); a quarto blank book, pp. 1-200, containing over 250 prayers, songs, and other formulas relating to the subjects mentioned. The headings are written in red ink and the book has a full table of contents and an illuminated title-page. The prescriptions and ceremonies are written out in full, and were prepared under the supervision of Mr. Mooney from dictation or from the original papers of the doctors named in the title. The work possesses a unique interest as an exposition of the Indian mythology and medical practice by full-blood Indians who speak no English. The copyist is a full-blood Cherokee. Mr. Mooney is now engaged in transliterating and translating it into English.

— [Vocabulary of the Lower Cherokee dialect, formerly spoken on the headwaters of Savannah River, in South Carolina and Georgia.]

Manuscript, pp. 77-228, quarto, in the library of the Bureau of Ethnology, recorded in a copy of Powell's Introduction to the Study of Indian Languages, 2d edition, completely illus. Obtained on the East Cherokee reservation in North Carolina in the fall of 1887, and revised on the same reservation in 1888. The informant was Chikilihi, an old man who is now the only one of the East Cherokee speaking this dialect. The appendix contains about a dozen pages of local names.

This vocabulary of the Lower Cherokee has been compiled by Mr. Mooney since the writing and printing of the last paragraph under his name on p. 124 of this bibliography, q. v.

The parallel vocabulary of the Middle Cherokee is now completed also. It does not constitute an independent manuscript, however, but occupies the "Remarks" column of the Upper Cherokee book, red ink being used. The Middle Cherokee dialect was formerly spoken between the Blue Ridge and Cowee Mountains in western North Carolina, and is still used by the majority of the East Cher-
